RALSTON NOW RUNNING A STRONG THIRD;
TODAY'S BALLOTING WEARS DOWN BOTH
M'ADOO AND SMITH AS WAS PREDICTED

Convention Adjourns
Until 8:30 P. M. After
Ralston Fails To Show
Any Great Strength.

WAS DRAB SESSION

Madison Square Garden, July 3, (INS).—Deadlocked as tightly at the end of the 54 ballots late this afternoon as it was last Monday, the Democratic convention adjourned at 4:25 this afternoon until 8:30 tonight with McAdoo hovering around 425, Smith 520 and Senator Samuel M. Ralston, of Indiana, being given a trial heat to see how much speed he can develop.

Ralston polled 92 votes on the 54th ballot, while Indiana giving him 30, with Missouri and Mississippi and scattering votes making up the balance.

The Hoosier Senator was the first of the "trial horses" trotted out. He failed to develop as much strength as was expected by his handlers, although it was understood that Tom Taggart, his manager, had more votes in sight for his candidate than he revealed before the adjournment.

As a result of today's developments there was talk among the McAdoo leaders at adjournment of trying to bring in a resolution providing that at the 60th ballot the lowest man on each succeeding ballot be dropped until only three are left and this trio to fight it out.

The proposition was advanced by the McAdoo managers but they found opposition to it everywhere. The Smith people were contemptuous and the supporters of every dark horse in the Democratic stable were as cold as ice to it.

Madison Square Garden, New York July 3.—Deadlocked through 51 ballots with Wm. G. McAdoo's lead slowly being reduced, the Democratic National convention began experimenting this afternoon in an effort to determine the strength of the various dark horses whose insistence in hanging in the race has provided the Smith-McAdoo impasse.

Shortly after two o'clock ex-Senator Gilbert Hitchcock of Nebraska, began circulating a resolution which would provide that starting with the 60th ballot, the low man on each ballot be dropped for consideration until only three would be left, and then these three be permitted to fight it out.

Hitchcock was seeking to get sufficient support for the resolution before actually introducing it. There appeared to be considerable division of opinion as to its advisability.

Missouri swung into the Ralston column on the 52nd ballot, putting the Hoosier Senator third in the running.

52ND BALLOT
McAdoo, 412½
Smith, 520½
J. W. Davis, 59
Underwood, 36½
Ralston, 92
Cox, 54
Ritchie, 16½

Robinson, 42
Gov. Davis, 2
Walsh, 1
Saulsbury, 6
Owen, 4
George Gordon Battle 20
Gov. Bryan.

On the 53rd ballot North Carolina passed and the delegation left the floor to caucus.

It had not returned when roll called and Chairman Walsh announced an informal recess of five minutes to give the North Carolinians time to reach a decision as to their future course.

Iowa were busy caucusing during the recess. Smith and McAdoo forces were busy contesting for the delegation under the unit rule while the Ralston men in it were trying to get the delegation solidly for the Hoosier Senator as a compromise between McAdoo and Smith forces.

North Carolina voted one Ralston, four Davis, three Underwood, one Glass, fifteen McAdoo, making the totals

McAdoo, 423½
Smith, 520½
J. W. Davis, 68
Underwood, 42½
Ralston, 94
Glass, 54
Ritchie, 16½
Robinson, 43
Saulsbury, 6
Owen, 4
Gov. Bryan, 6
North Carolina, 20½
McAdoo, 423½

OUCH!

Madison Square Garden, N. Y. July 3, (INS).—Despite jumping back and forth with a pad and pencil trying to find out how the Missouri delegates wanted to vote, Col. Charles M. Hay found time today to send a wise cracking telegram to a volunteer political sage in St. Louis. The adviser telegraphed collect:

"Get off McAdoo; be an American," to which Hay sent an answer, paid, which said:

"I am not seeking advice on Americanism from men too cheap to pay for a telegram."

M'ADOO MANAGERS
MAY TRY TO BREAK
THE UNIT RULINGS

Bryan Speech Yesterday
Enabled McAdoo to Go
Over 500 Votes But Is
Cause of Bitterness.

SMITH IS STILL IN IT

The Bryan speech yesterday, while it turned some wavering votes into the McAdoo column and enabled him to climb to the highest point he has yet attained, 505.5 votes, at the same time knit the anti-McAdoo forces more closely together. They have a veto bloc of more than 367 votes which Bryan only made more solid.

McAdoo's total at the close of the fourth ballot was 503.4 or 46.6 less than a majority, and 228.6 less than the two thirds required for the nomination under present rules.

The goal of the McAdoo managers last night and today was a majority. Once assured of this, the prospect was that the McAdoo managers would assault the two thirds rule, and seek to have the convention discard it in favor of a new rule allowing a nomination by a majority.

A change in the rules, however, seemed more remote even than the chances of McAdoo for obtaining sufficient votes to enable him to make the fight.

Smith Sits Tight
The Smith managers are merely "sitting tight." They are waiting for McAdoo to "shoot his bolt," convinced that he never can attain the two thirds, or even a majority, and once the McAdoo strength hits the rocks in bloc—as they are confident it will—they are going to have their say.

Madison Square Garden, N. Y. July 3.—Plainly out to set a new record in balloting for a Presidential nomination, delegates to the Democratic National Convention re-assembled in Madison Square Garden this morning and resumed their efforts to unite on a man who can command two-thirds of their number.

Forty two ballots were behind them and another weary day ahead, making it virtually certain that the 44 ballots in San Francisco in 1920, and the 49 required for Wilson's nomination at Baltimore in 1912 would be outstripped by this turbulent gathering.

Leaders of the rival factions came to the Garden fresh from a series of conferences, the most significant of which was held in the Waldorf just before 10 a. m., and was participated in by George E. Brennan, of Illinois, Joseph M. Gaffey, of Pennsylvania, Norman E. Mack, of New York, and Tom Taggart, of Indiana.

Tom Taggart, of Indiana, in this gathering, was the first to make a statement for order.

Despite McAdoo's imposing climb to 505.4, the Smith managers climbed out today that his net gain over the first ballot of the convention on Monday was only 71.9 votes.

The Smith philosophy found expression in Franklin D. Roosevelt, his campaign manager, whose smile never left during the hysterics of the crowd.

Declaration of Independence July 4th 1776

When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

Rotarians Hear How Our
Blinded Ex-Service Men
Are Being Educated; It
Is A Remarkable Success

Robert B. Reed, son of Rotarian F. B. Reed, gave the local Rotary Club a highly interesting talk on the work of the Evergreen School for the Blind maintained by the U. S. Government at Baltimore for the education and rehabilitation of men blinded in the world war. Mr. Reed is the head of this wonderful institution, which has already produced marvelous results.

He said there were 600 service men totally blinded in the war and then detailed their experiences in fitting these poor unfortunate for life's battles over again. The stories he told of the remarkable response of the patients and the results attained were marvelous and almost beyond belief. Many of these sightless fellows have been educated as poultry raisers and are now employed and making good throughout the country.

time only half the delegates were in their seats.

The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. John E. Zindel, pastor of the English Evangelical Lutheran Church. He prayed that God might strengthen these delegates for the performance of their duties.

"Let neither estrangement nor disappointment visit them," he added.

The many empty seats bore testimony that many delegates had departed for home, leaving their votes in the hands of their associates or their leaders.

"This looks like a Ralston day," said Taggart this morning. "I wouldn't be surprised if we shall find the chance to make at least a trial run for the Senator today. It looks to me as if the next two ballots will decide the chances of both McAdoo and Gov. Smith. The delegates are all tired and want to get home for the holiday. They are really making to get down to work. I have had additional assurances of support since last night from four big state delegations and the chances are very good."

After the opening seats were taken, Chairman Gaffey, of Pennsylvania, said "Senator Ralston commands the respect of the Pennsylvania delegation. I do not desire to say any more, but I am sure that he will be elected."

Brennan refused to talk, but Norman E. Mack said if New York delegates found Gov. Smith's name were lost, they would elect him.

THE BIG CELEBRATION IS NOW UNDER WAY;
A FINE CROWD ATTENDS THE EVENT;
ANOTHER GREAT DAY PROMISED TOMORROW

The big two-day celebration of the American Legion got underway with a rush and a roar this morning and was in full swing as we go to press. A large crowd of people are in town and the Park is comfortably filled, taking in the very fine program prepared for them by the hard-working members of John Shade Post.

The two-day racing program is the best ever given in this region as a 4th of July attraction, while the dare-devil, death-defying special features at the Park are well worth coming miles to see.

Big Parade Tomorrow
The big industrial parade, always a feature of the Legion's Fourth of July celebration, scheduled for tomorrow morning, promises to be a real novelties to be a hummer, about all business and industrial concerns vying with each other in the attempt to make the grandest display and capture the handsome silver cups to be awarded as prizes for the best floats in line.

Something For Everybody.
There will be something doing every hour of the day tomorrow and something for everybody in the way of entertainment and amusement. Those who love music may enjoy delightful band concerts by Clearfield's great American Legion Band.

The services of the "sport of kings" will be rendered to watch some of the fastest light harness horses in the State in action on the race track. The baseball enthusiast will see the game between DuBois and Clearfield, the C. P. League leaders, while the thrill seekers to the feature acts will see as an incentive to the victor or to seek other stupendous exhilarating and exciting entertainment to be found in a stroll down the midway at Geo. Tobyns big carnival.

Come Along Buddy
The old service dogs admit to the Park and a generous one general look-in at everything going on. Come along, Buddy; and don't forget to wear your "sleeper clothes." They are badges of honor all should be proud to don. There will be a very large delegation of ex-service men in the big parade tomorrow morning.

All roads lead to Clearfield tomorrow. We promise you "some celebration."

Disturbances Mark The
Convening Of Kleroro
At Binghamton, N. Y.

Binghamton, N. Y. July 3 (INS).—Rioting broke out today in connection with the sessions of the State Kleroro of the Ku Klux Klan here.

Disturbances have been feared by police ever since the Klansmen began their descent on this city, when they made an attack on the home of Major E. D. Smith, Kingklegale of the Realm of New York.

Mrs. S. V. Border entertained at home on West Pine St. Nine tables were in play and a delightful afternoon was had. Mrs. Charles Kurtz and Mrs. Ralph Austin were high score holders and both were presented with beautiful gifts.

Mrs. Rachael Dobson and daughter are visiting at the home of Rev. A. W. English in Brookwayville. From there they will go to Pittsburgh, to spend some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hile tarried in town Monday. Mr. Hile and his brother, Elbridge, from Lumber City, were assisting their father, Eli Hile, with business connected with the Hile estate. Accompanying them was their son, Russell, who is assistant to Dr. Furman, head master in the Irving School for boys at Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson. The management admits only one hundred and twenty-five boys. Dr. Russell Hile is one of ten counselors who are taking fifty of these boys camping during the summer months to the White Mountains, New Hampshire.

Mrs. Alex Black and Mrs. R. B. Pearce were called to Mooshannon recently on account of the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Hankin. She is recovering, however.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright Turner are spending the Fourth in Williamsport. We are glad to note that Mrs. C. N. Gibson is recovering from a serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Eldridge and daughter Phyllis motored here from Juncostown and are visiting at the home of Mrs. Eldridge's sister, Mrs. Stanley Mellett, on Spruce Street.

Mrs. Maurice Jordan, of Juncostown, is spending the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. William Jordan on Turnpike avenue.

Plaid

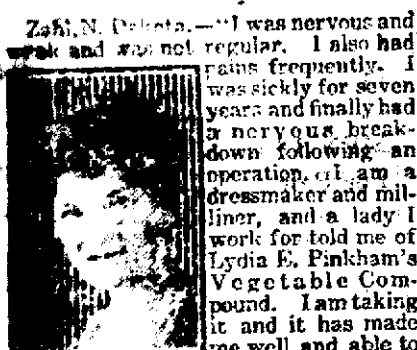

The effective use of plaid material on plain is shown in this gown of black, white, and red. It is really nothing more than our standby this year, the coat dress, given a little extra twist in the way of frills and bands. The front and frilled sleeves are feminine and engaging looking and are much more becoming to many women than the severe finish of tailored panels. The wrap-around skirt caught up at the side cannot be improved upon for comfort and is universally becoming.

We've a new Devil in our town. He's a Devil of great renown. He's a Devil with whom all women try. His name is Blue Devil; he's a Devil for you.

ALL WOMEN WHO WORK

Should Know how this Worker was Made Strong and Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Zah, N. (Delaware). "I was nervous and weak and not regular. I also had pains frequently. I was sickly for seven years and finally had a nervous breakdown following an operation. I am a dressmaker and milliner, and a lady I work for told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am taking it and it has made me well and able to do my work again. I have even helped take care of a sick neighbor recently, so you can see how fit I am. I highly praise your medicine and you may use my letter as you see fit. I hope it will help some other woman." — Mrs. O. L. NORD-LEIGH, 61-27 Zah, North Dakota.

Over 100,000 women have so far replied to our question. "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?"

"85 per cent. of these replies answer 'Yes.'"

This means that 98 out of every 100 women taking this medicine for all kinds of ailments is recommended by 85 per cent. of the women who have used it. For sale by all druggists.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

McAdoo dropped below 500 on the first ballot of today's session, due largely to the defection of Oklahoma whose 20 votes were transferred to Senator Robinson, of Arkansas.

As the balloting proceeded, the expectation for a "break" became more and more general during the day.

The 44th ballot brought little change in the situation. McAdoo was unable to increase his total and Smith remained stationary.

Both Thomas Taggart, of Indiana, and Gov. Brough, of Arkansas, were busy on the floor during the balloting lining up secondary choice strength for Ralston and Robinson respectively.

The Arkansas manager claimed at 11:15 to have eight states lined up for Robinson when the "break" came; Taggart was said to have considerably more than that for Ralston.

McAdoo dropped a vote on the 45th ballot and Smith made no progress. As it was being taken, Robinson's managers were working earnestly on the floor to set the stage to give the Arkansas Senator "a ride with a few ballots."

As the 46th ballot was starting reports were spread on the floor that Senator Carter Glass of Virginia had released his delegates.

The Glass managers were in conference at the Waldorf and the report could not be confirmed in the Garden, so Virginia continued to cast its 24 votes for the Senator. The lines held tight on the 48th ballot, the totals of none of the candidates varying more than a few stray votes.

Just before the fiftieth ballot started, it was reported that McAdoo managers were considering a proposition to the convention that the lowest man on each ballot be dropped, thus eliminating the outsiders and narrowing the race down to the real contenders.

The Oklahoma vote of 20 for Senator Robinson was challenged on the fiftieth ballot and a poll demanded. The Trapp-Owen faction in the delegation voted for Robinson and the others for Ralston of Indiana.

Every Ralston vote was greeted with "Yip, Yip" from the Indiana delegation seated behind them. The Oklahoma poll showed ten for Robinson and nine for Ralston with one absent.

Under the unit rule, the entire twenty was ordered cast for Robinson. Simultaneously with this agitation a spirit was begun by Senator Samuel M. Ralston, of Indiana, under the careful tutelage of Tom Taggart. Iowa, which has voted 24 for McAdoo consistently under the unit rule, waived it by unanimous agreement on this vote and allowed the delegates to vote as they pleased. It disclosed a wide division, all candidates getting part of it.

Kansas likewise was getting restive under the McAdoo yoke. The usual 20 for McAdoo from the Sunflower state was challenged on the 51st, but it was withdrawn for the time being.

less carbon

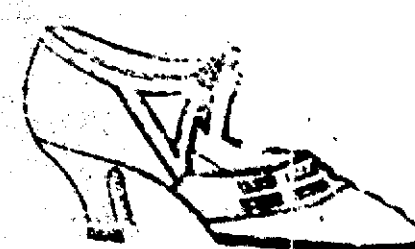

TO THE driver half the pleasure of motoring is in having a sweet-running, knockless motor. But to-day there's another and more important reason why your motor should be kept fit, flexible, full-powered. That's traffic congestion.

Avoid carbon. It is the pernicious enemy of speed, power, responsiveness and motor dependability. Poor combustion causes carbon.

The Atlantic Gasoline you buy to-day, because of its quick-starting, clean-burning qualities, tends to lessen carbon formation in the cylinders. It is snappier, more easily converted into vapor, more readily ignited by the spark, more complete in combustion. No more efficient, full-powered, finely balanced gasoline has ever been refined for use under modern operating conditions.

IRELAND AT WASHINGTON

Ireland has won its fight for separate representation at Washington, and won it more easily than was expected. Premier MacDonald requested the United States government to receive a minister plenipotentiary from Ireland, on the same terms as ministers from other countries, and Secretary Hughes has announced that the government will be only too pleased to do so.

This development ought to settle the status of Ireland as a self-governing country. Its entire independence is acknowledged in affairs concerning Ireland alone. In affairs affecting Great Britain or the British Empire, naturally the British ambassador will take a hand. Ireland can have no objection to that, as long as she continues a self-governing member of the British "family of nations", on a parity with Canada, South Africa, Australia and the other dominions.

It should have an excellent effect on Anglo-Irish and Irish-American relations, convincing the doubters that Ireland has not been tricked in the treaty establishing the present regime.

JAPANESE GOOD SENSE

When good sense is given a hearing it usually prevails over jingoistic shoutings. When leading Japanese merchants and industrialists plead with their countrymen in behalf of continued friendship, commerce and peace with the United States, they are likely to carry their point.

This country takes more than 40 per cent of all Japan's exports and supplies more than 25 per cent of her imports. That is a healthy commercial relationship which cannot be wisely overturned.

Whatever this country thinks of the Japanese as immigrants, it does admire the Japanese as a nation; it sympathizes with Japanese industry, is interested in Japanese art, and would like to know more about Japanese thought and civilization. There is a fundamental friendliness toward Japan which must be cultivated rather than choked.

The two countries have always been at peace, and there is no reason why they should not always remain so if each nation cultivates its tolerance and good will. A truly civilized ideal calls for friendship and peace first. Commerce follows naturally.

TODAY'S POETRY

Some one has tried to praise—or explain or excuse—modern poetry by saying it is so attuned to modern life that those of the present do not realize its high value.

This may be faint praise for modern poetry. It also seems like faint praise for modern humanity. If poetry which truly represents human thought and human inspiration and human emotion today is so lacking in universal appeal and understanding that we for whom it is written cannot "get" it, who will ever find it noble or beautiful? And what an isolated period the present one must be!

The great poetry which has come down to us through the years makes its appeal to us because it reflects humanity and records human aspirations so truly that it is fresh and living today as it was when first written. If any great poetry is written now it will last far into the future, while the verse that is attuned only to the present day will not outlast that day.

Progress Editorials for Women

THREE LUSTY CHINESE

By FLORENCE DAVIES

Three lusty cheers for the great and glorious Fourth.

We used to send out for fireworks and get but the town band and have the flag and all go down to see the parade.

But parades, somehow, seem to pull a bit lately, and a chance to get off in the country with lunch baskets seems more attractive than the fireman's band tooting its bravest.

We aren't quite so cheery about the great and glorious spirit of independence, since we've learned from bitter experience that neither people or nations can ever be truly independent of each other, so our Fourth of July speeches are not quite so thoroughly saturated with the fiery joy of shaking off shackles of parent countries and belonging to the land of the brave and the free.

But a better and bigger kind of Americanism remains, and if we are inclined to prefer lunch baskets and the family care, to fireworks and oratory, let us not think that we are lacking in the spirit of true loyalty to national ideals.

Even the fact that the Presidential candidate market doesn't seem to be flooded with first citizens who are just cut out to be president doesn't entirely blind our eyes to the fact that America is a pretty good place to be.

And there is more than one way of expressing loyalty. One way is with bands and parades and pink lemonade and cheap oratory, and the other way is by definite constructive service.

The club women of the land had a pretty sane idea when they came to the conclusion that welcoming our new citizens at specially arranged meetings was a better kind of patriotism than sending up hundreds of dollars worth of fireworks, which would be longest remembered by the hundred or more unfortunate little boys and girls who lost fingers and eyes thereby.

PROCLAMATION

We have in the past three years avoided any injury to guests of the American Legion celebration because of our traffic system. This year we hope to avoid any injury and therefore respectfully request that you give us your co-operation on July 3rd and 4th.

One way traffic is established in going to and from the park. Signs will mark the streets on which traffic is permitted.

To the Park

Down Second street, across Second street Bridge, up Nichols street to Turnpike; out Turnpike avenue to McBride street, down McBride street to automobile entrance to park.

To Town

Leaving park by exit at gate on Old Mill Road, turn to left on Old Mill Road to Turnpike avenue, turn to left down Turnpike ave., past hospital to B. R. & P. Station and across Market street Bridge to Court House.

Traffic policemen will be stationed to direct traffic at points of intersection and along Turnpike Avenue. No parking will be permitted on Turnpike Avenue between West Pine street and Old Mill Road, or McBride street.

We are going to make every effort to move traffic as speedily as possible, and earnestly request that you abide by the traffic rules and pay strict attention to traffic guides so we may again entertain our guests without injury to any.

Pedestrians will enter the park by the Main Gate.

country. One case mentioned was that of a young sailor who went ashore on the Italian front. While sightseeing over the battle field this man picked up what looked to be a tube of tooth paste, but which proved to be a bomb, the explosion of which blew off both his hands and blinded both his eyes. This man was taken in charge at the Evergreen School, recently passed his second year examinations with honors at a Maryland law school and expects to become a full fledged lawyer, following his graduation next year.

Reports were also made by Delegate Dean Bloom of the recent Toronto Convention. Howard Stewart, Dr. Ward O. Wilson, Albert Stewart, Phil Barrow and John Forsyth also added some details to Dean's story. It was unanimously decided after these recitals to extend the Club's thanks to DuBois, Niagara Falls, Buffalo and Toronto Rotary Clubs for the splendid manner in which they received and treated the local delegation to Toronto.

President Smith complimented his committee for their promptness and announced the Boys Work Committee would have the floor for next week's meeting. Chairman Leavy of the Parade Committee announced that his committee had every arrangement made for the handling of the children at the Children's Home on the Fourth. Leavy now poses as an authority on children.

Kansas Farmers Organize 400-Bushel Potato Club

According to the Kansas Industrialist, the Kansas State Agricultural college is sponsoring an organization, membership in which is restricted to those farmers who shall grow 400 bushels or more of potatoes on an acre of land. This is believed to be the second "Four Hundred Bushel Potato" club organized in this country, the other being the club that already has a year or more of successful experience behind it in Pennsylvania.

The ever-growing list of state "Corn," "Wheat" and "Potato" clubs is tangible evidence of the rapidly widening conviction in the necessity for stimulating interest in higher rates of yield as being perhaps the most practicable means of increasing production cost and insuring a fair profit to the grower.

FOWLER-CRAGO

Tuesday evening, July 1st, 1924—Mr. Gordon Fowler and Miss Elizabeth M. Crago, both of Houtzdale, were united in the bonds of Holy matrimony in the West Side Methodist parsonage by the pastor—William L. Armstrong. After a brief honeymoon trip to Harnesboro, Pa., they will be at home to their friends in Houtzdale, where congratulations and best wishes may be bountifully bestowed.

THOMPSON-NICHOLSON

The marriage ceremony of Clair S. Thompson and Miss Flora Eva Nicholson, both of Grampian, Pa., was solemnized in the West Side Methodist parsonage on Wednesday evening, July 2nd, 1924—by the pastor, William L. Armstrong. The beautiful ring ceremony of the church was used. They were attended by Mrs. Marian Nicholson Thompson, as bridesmaid, a sister of the bride and Carl F. Thompson, as bestman, brother of the groom. They will be at home in Grampian, Pa. to their many friends, who desire to extend congratulations and best wishes.

Bad Luck and the Devil Pursued Him

"I don't think any one has had more bad luck and sickness than I have. In 1905 I had two ribs broke, an arm and collar bone broken in a railroad accident. Then I had pneumonia. After recovering I crossed a pasture when a bull chased me, tossed me over the fence and broke my right leg. In 1910 I had typhoid fever; since then severe stomach and liver trouble, which no medicine or doctor touched until two years ago I got a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which proved the first ray of light in thirteen years. It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinally tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all Druggists."

CAL MEETS CHARLIE

This is the first picture to be secured of President Coolidge with his running mate, Charles Dawes. It was taken in Washington where Dawes and Coolidge have been discussing Republican campaign matters.

La Follette Plans A Sideshow Of His Own

arrow with a shift of the platform which the illustrious Wisconsin Senator plans this convention to adopt. That platform will assail both old line parties for failure "to enunciate progressive doctrines" and will call for sweeping reforms in governmental operation. Having had full opportunity to study both platforms adopted in Cleveland and New York, La Follette will go each one better in pronouncing a Progressive doctrinal redressing particularly to farmers and laborers.

Chief planner in the La Follette platform it was learned today are:

- 1—Governmental ownership of railroads.
- 2—Farm relief through immediate establishment of a federal corporation to buy and sell agricultural products.
- 3—Sweeping reduction of tariff rates.
- 4—Constitutional amendment, giving Congress power by a two-thirds vote to override decisions of the supreme court.
- 5—Direct primary for election of President and Vice President.
- 6—Lowering of taxes on the smaller incomes and imposing higher rates in the upper brackets, possibly including an excess profits tax.

7—Further disarmament on land and sea.

8—Tightening up of the anti-trust laws.

9—Government development of water power resources, such as music Shouls.

10—Practic corrupt practices act.

As far as those already on the ground are concerned, the question of La Follette heading an independent third ticket is settled. So confident are they that they will run, after receiving the endorsement of this convention, that they are turning most of their attention to the platform and the selection of a Vice presidential nominee. For second choice, Warren S. Stolls, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Democrat, of Montana and Representative Huddellstone, Democrat, of Alabama, are receiving the most consideration.

The agricultural west is to be the battleground for the ticket that is to be supported here. Convention managers virtually concede the east to President Coolidge but they claim most of the States west of the Mississippi River, with fighting chance in Illinois, Michigan, Ohio and Indiana.

There is some question about the exact form of the support to give La Follette. Word from Washington is that La Follette doesn't want to be nominated, but merely endorsed. Those here who have hopes of forming a third party which in a few years will be strong enough to compete on even terms with the Republican and Democratic parties, desire to nominate La Follette. A statement is expected from La Follette shortly which will make clear his position on this question.

The admitted aim of the convention managers is the formation of a new party with the ultimate hope of building up the party system in the United States. They are not so much interested in a presidential candidacy this year as they are in definitely laying their groundwork for the new party. They feel that both old parties have failed to make any concessions to Progressive voters, and that, therefore, the time is ripe for them to enter the field and capture at least five million votes, hoping that this will throw the election of a president into the House this fall.

Tony Fontana Finds Art In Colored Fire

Hudson, Ohio, July 3—It all depends on what you call art.

Tony Fontana says he is an artist. The sky at night is his canvas, and he paints gorgeous pictures with colored fire.

Tony makes some of the world's largest pyrotechnic displays in his ramshackle little factory two miles south of here.

"It's an art," says Tony, "but a dangerous art."

A little too much black powder here—a little too much white powder there—may cost a hundred lives.

Not ENOUGH powder—and the slightest mistake in timing an explosion—might cause one of those spectacular aerial bombs to burst in the crowd. A tiny piece of wood, set a bare inch to one side before the sprocket of a big pinwheel, might send the fiery wheel whirling into the spectators' midst.

On Scientific Plane

Besides being dangerous, the manufacture of fireworks is a highly scientific enterprise, Fontana talked about his work.

"Fireworks are judged by the colors they contain," he said. "Heated vapors of certain metals give color to a flame. Sodium, for instance, gives a yellow color; copper gives green or blue."

"What makes fireworks move?"

"The way they are constructed."

"When a big gun is fired it recoils a few feet. Movable fireworks may be looked upon as very light guns loaded recoil, of course, is much more noticeable with heavy charges, and then the able. It only requires proper contrivances to make a piece fly through the air like a skyrocket or revolve around a central axis like a Catherine wheel."

"What causes stars to burst in the air?"

"Some fixed pieces contain balls or blocks of a special mixture, cemented by a kind of varnish. And these stars shot one by one into the air like bullets from a gun, blaze and burst there with striking effect."

Care In Packing

"How are cases for fireworks made?"

"They are manufactured from paper or pasteboard and generally are in cylindrical shape. The actual packing and finishing of the fireworks require much care and dexterity." The relation of length and thickness, the size of the opening for the discharge must be estimated, and carried out with mathematical exactness.

Fontana or some of his workmen usually accompany big shipments of his fireworks.

It's Fourth of July all the year round for them.

Liberty Theatre Presents New Hal Roach Serial Which Will Be Fine One

Hal Roach will present his novel new chapter play, "Her Dangerous Path," a Patheserial featuring Edna Murphy, for the first time in this city tomorrow at the Liberty Theatre with "What The Sands Told," the first episode.

This novel serial deals with the problems of a young girl when she picks her own destiny, taking all the chances that come her way for better or for worse. Each chapter is a story in itself, showing what would happen if she should marry the man she asks for her hand. Thrills are abundant, and in the first episode a thrilling automobile chase is promised, ending with the machine plunging over a cliff—the What-Might-Have-Been of the girl's first opportunity to wed.

Federal Grades for Alfalfa Suggested

Department of Agriculture Plans Are Outlined.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Federal grades for alfalfa are contemplated in investigational work now being done by the United States Department of Agriculture. Preliminary studies in co-operation with state experiment stations the past few months have included the collating of all data obtainable on the relative weight and feeding value of leaves and stems, relative feeding value of different cuttings at various stages of maturity, losses due to leaching, mechanical losses incurred in curing and the results of feeding experiments with stock weaned and stock burned alfalfa. Studies have also been made of the relative importance of alfalfa production in different parts of the United States and of the volume of receipts in various markets.

A number of bales of alfalfa hay have been obtained at various points in the West by the Kansas City office of the hay, feed and seed division of the department, and forwarded to the department's hay laboratory at Washington. Detailed studies of these bales are being made to determine statistical facts regarding color, texture, leafiness and foreign material as grading factors.

During the coming summer representatives of the department will visit the principal alfalfa markets and producing areas to make a thorough survey of existing grades and marketing practices to secure additional samples. Persons interested in the grading of alfalfa, and who have constructive suggestions to offer, are invited to correspond with the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Concrete Mixed With Accuracy

Strength of Material Is Determined by Amount of Water Employed.

Few persons realize, perhaps, how great an effect a difference in the proportion of water can have in the mixing of concrete. There are many who do not realize that for each pint of unnecessary water added to a concrete mixture the strength of the finished concrete may be decreased as much as if two pounds of portland cement had been left out.

The best concrete mixture is that which is as stiff as can be mixed conveniently. Even this will not be of the maximum strength which could be obtained, but a mixture of maximum strength would not be practicable for general construction purposes, as it would be too stiff to be worked. But a mixture of the stiffest consistency that can be worked will give 70 to 80 per cent of the maximum strength.

The following table shows how too much or too little water detracts from the strength of concrete by wasting the strength of the cement:

Says Piles Heal Up and Disappear Forever

Seldom Fails to Give Absolute Relief From All Pain And Suffering. Guaranteed by Stewart Drug Co. And all Good Druggists.

Many sufferers from Piles or Hemorrhoids have become despondent because they have been led to believe that their case was hopeless and that there was nothing in the world to help them.

To these people we say, "Go to your druggists and get an original box of MOAYA SUPPOSITORIES." One of these inserted into the rectum according to directions will be found to give immediate relief. They reach the source of the trouble and by their soothing, healing, antiseptic action first allay the pain and soreness and then by direct contact with the ulcers and piles cause them to heal up and disappear forever.

It's simply wonderful how speedily they act. Blessed relief often comes in two days. Even in cases that have steadily resisted all known treatments marvelous results have been obtained. MOAYA is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and any sufferer from Piles or Hemorrhoids who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded.

Ouch! Such Pain!

It takes you right in the back! Sometimes in the hip or foot.

It's all due to an over-abundance of that poison, called uric acid. The kidneys are not able to get rid of it. Such conditions you can readily overcome, and prolong life by taking the advice of Dr. Pierce, which is, "keep the kidneys in good order." Avoid too much meat, alcohol or tea. Drink plenty of pure water, preferably hot water, before meals, and drive the uric acid out of the system by taking Anuric. This can be obtained at any drug store, in tablet form. Ask for Dr. Pierce's Anuric (kidney and backache remedy).

Lohanna, Pa.—"For four months I was confined to my home quite unable to work. I could not sleep at night because of too frequent kidney action and the secretion burned like scalding water. During that four months I had three different doctors with the hope that one of them would prescribe something that would help me, but it was not until I began to take Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets that I felt sure of getting better. I was soon back at my work again, and am glad to say that both my kidneys and bladder are in a fine healthy condition. John A. DEMOCRATS QUIT UNTIL MONDAY MORNING

FIRST BALLOT IS BARREN OF RESULT; OHIO BREAKS ON THE 74TH ROLL CALL

Madison Square Garden, New York, July 5.—(INS)—The Democratic National Convention resorted to arbitration late today after taking 77 ballots in a futile effort to nominate a presidential candidate.

Sen. King of Utah moved an adjournment until 11 o'clock Monday morning. There was vociferous objection but Walsh finally ruled the adjournment motion had passed.

The conclusion of a hectic day which had witnessed efforts to move the convention to Kansas City and seen three efforts to narrow the field of candidates down by elimination failed to bring a vote from the floor. A number of the leaders got together in the middle of the afternoon and reported out a resolution which provided, in effect that Cordell Hull, Chairman of the National Committee and Thomas J. Walsh, permanent Chairman of the Convention, be appointed a committee of two to consult the representatives of all candidates and try to "reach an understanding which will hasten the conclusion of this convention."

The resolution follows:
"I move that when this convention adjourns today the Chairman of the Democratic National Committee and of this Convention be requested to call a conference of their representatives of the candidates whose names are to be balloted for and who have been formally placed for the purpose of reaching an understanding so as to hasten the conclusion of this Convention."

It was adopted with only a few votes in opposition.
Immediately after this was adopted the convention adjourned until 11:00 Monday morning, the consultations and conferences of Hull and Walsh with the candidates' managers to take place in the meanwhile.

The plan agreed upon—for Walsh and Hull to arbitrate the matter—has the endorsement of all the various candidates; it was said by those in the conferences.

There was considerable kicking about at first but the more non-partisan among the party leaders like Hull and Walsh absolutely insisted that something be done. They pointed out that the convention, over their head at the moment, was then engaged in taking the 77th ballot and that 77 more would probably prove futile under existing conditions.

They insisted that from the standpoint of harmony, mutual advantage and everything else the present situation was intolerable and becoming.

DELEGATES REFUSE TO DROP FAVORITE SONS BY ELIMINATING ONE ON EACH VOTE

Madison Square Garden, N. Y., July 5.—Twice within the first two hours of its session today the Democratic National Convention voted down proposals that would have provided for progressive elimination of favorite sons candidates for the President.

Both resolutions were designed to break the deadlock that has continued for six days through 73 ballots and both were made by the McAdoo forces and opposed by the anti-McAdoo forces.

The first of these proposals by Ed. H. Hemans, a delegate from Oklahoma was howled down by a viva voce vote without a roll call. It was too drastic. It would have provided for the elimination of all but two candidates by automatically lopping off the lowest man on each ballot, until only the pair were left—McAdoo and Smith.

The second proposal was by ex-senator Gilbert Hitchcock of Nebraska and was considerably less rigorous. It would have eliminated all but five, the eliminations to have lasted only for one day.

Hitchcock's resolution follows:
"Resolved: It is the sense of this convention that ending with the 76th ballot the candidate receiving the lowest vote should signify to his supporters his withdrawal as a candidate, until only 5 candidates remain before the convention, such withdrawal to remain effective for this day only."

On this resolution there was a roll call and it was overwhelmingly defeated by a vote of 496 ayes to 589½ noes. It would require a two-thirds vote to pass because a suspension of the rules was involved.

Washington, July 5 (INS)—Second Assistant Secretary of State, A. A. Ade, died here today. He was 82 years old.

Moving Of Convention To Kansas City Is Voted Down Almost Unanimous

Madison Square Garden, New York, July 5.—A sensational move to take the Democratic National Convention away from New York and reconvene it again in Kansas City on July 21st, was overwhelmingly defeated on the floor of Madison Square Garden this afternoon in a rollcall vote.

The movement was sponsored by A. H. Ferguson, a delegate from Durant, Okla. He presented a resolution declaring that inasmuch as it was evident this convention was getting nowhere, it should be adjourned after the 7th ballot to assemble again in Kansas City three weeks hence.

Despite vigorous objections raised by the Smith and allied forces in the convention, Chairman Walsh ordered that the Oklahoman's resolution was perfectly in order and should be voted on.

In the end, after a series of hurried consultations, the Smith and McAdoo forces joined in sending the move down to crashing defeat.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis of 11th street entertained at a house party over the 4th.

Out of town guests were Colonel Lewis C. Schucker, wife and son and Mr. Jackson of Mommy, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Rishell and daughter Ruth, of Norfolk, Va.; Lewis L. Rishell of Asheville, N. C.; Prof. and Mrs. Geo. W. Hoyt and family, of Springfield, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Rishell, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Noel and children, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Helb, Mrs. Sadie Hetrick, Mrs. G. H. Kinefelter, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hoover and family and Miss Lillian Reichard of York, Pa.

The above accompanied by The Davis family will attend the Rishell Regillon to be held at "The Pines," near DuBois on Saturday, July 5th.

MILL EXPLOSION KILLS FOUR NEAR BRADFORD, PA.

Bradford, Pa., July 5, (INS)—Four men are dead and two are in a critical condition today at a local hospital as the result of injuries received when the plant of the Luminol Corporation, of Pittsburg, at Lewis Run, was destroyed by a gas explosion late Thursday afternoon.

The dead: Joel Light, 25, Allentown, Pa., expert chemist; Joe Minchie, 25, Lewis Run; Victor Deprater, 24, East Wear; Paul Frank 25, mining engineer, chemist.

The injured: George Wisegarber, 26 of Wayneburg, manager of the plant and son of the president of the Luminol Corporation; John Minchie, 15, Lewis Run, brother of one of the dead men.

The bodies were blown 200 feet from the plant and were almost unrecognizable. The plant was only opened last week and is a complete wreck.

LAST NIGHT'S DOPE

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

New York, July 5.—Deadlocked for 70 ballots, and seemingly deadlocked for that many more unless Wm. G. McAdoo and Gov. Al. Smith cannot be prevailed upon to eliminate themselves, thus allowing a compromise on a third man, the tired, bewildered delegates to the Democratic National convention went back to Madison Square Garden today and took up the weary grind of answering roll call.

Overnight developments offered but little promise of the convention making any more headway in its battle of the ballots than it has made in the five previous days. Suggestions that the only solution of this unprecedented situation, lies in the withdrawal of both leading candidates began to be heard with increasing frequency as the sixth day got under way.

Governor Smith is ready to pull out, according to his friends if Mr.

Ardmore Policemen Shot, One Seriously Hurt. In Approach To Klan Meet

Ardmore, Pa., July 5. (INS)—Lower Merion township police authorities were prepared to "do battle to the death" with alleged members of the Ku Klux Klan in this vicinity, following the shooting of two officers who were on their way to investigate the burning of a fire cross on the Haverford College grounds.

Captain James I. Donaghy, Police Chief, issued orders to his men that they were to "shoot to kill" any persons appearing in the regalia of the Klan.

A fire alarm was sent in by residents who first saw the fiery cross burning, according to Donaghy's report, and Francis Roy and Albert Miller, policemen, responded. They were walking across a meadow toward the blaze when they saw two figures slinking away in the darkness. They ordered them to halt and instead, they were shot. Roy was seriously injured. A reward of $1,000 has been offered for identification of the men.

FINE HEALTH REPORT

Secretary Gaultin of the Board of Health in his weekly report states that but two cases of communicable disease were reported to the Board of Health during the past week. One was chicken pox and the other scarlet fever.

There are but five cases of contagion in the town under quarantine. They are located as follows—

First Ward—None.
Second Ward—Measles.
3rd Ward—Scarlet fever, 1;
Measles, 2; Chicken Pox, 1.
4th Ward—None.

Klan Plank Bobs Up To Disturb La Follette's Cleveland Convention

Cleveland, July 5 (INS)—The resolutions committee of the conference for Progressive political action engaged in drafting a platform upon which Senator Robert M. La Follette will make his Independent presidential race unexpectedly found itself confronted today with one of the most troublesome of all political questions—the Ku Klux Klan.

Just as the committee members were congratulating themselves that they had avoided the embarrassment of dealing with this problem, a small group of men appeared with a proposed plank denouncing the Klan by name. Failure to incorporate it in the platform, they would, would result in the taking of the right directly to the floor of the convention as the Democrats did in New York.

COOLIDGE'S SON IS VERY ILL OF BLOOD POISONING TODAY

Washington, July 5, (INS)—The condition of Calvin Coolidge, Jr., son of the President, who is seriously ill at the White House with blood poisoning was unchanged at 2:55 o'clock this afternoon.

Physicians have been in attendance at his bedside for 24 hours, and both the President and Mrs. Coolidge were in and out of the sick room during the night.

UNION SERVICES FROM JULY 13 TO AUGUST 24

Both because of the spirit of fellowship among the ministers of Clearfield and to strengthen the fraternal and Christian relations among these churches, the pastors have arranged for union meetings on Sunday nights from July 13 to August 24. The places of meeting are Trinity church, July 20, alternating through the period. No announcement of the preacher will be made. The services, however, will be featured. Music will be exceptional in some respects right along. It may not be the selections always; probably the folks that lead. The respective Churches have entered into this plan with fine unanimity and enthusiasm. It promises much for the entire community; it offers much in opportunity and service to the people. The Baptist, Lutheran, Trinity Methodist, Presbyterian and Protestant Episcopal Churches are joining in this union meeting plan. And their respective members will support from duty, privilege and interest in the major objectives of these meetings.

La Follette Will Run; Trust Me, He Says, Old Parties Unfaithful

Cleveland July 4.—Tossing his hat into the ring as an independent candidate for President Senator Robert M. La Follette, of Wisconsin, has created a tangled political situation which may bear strange fruit, possibly throwing the election of a Chief Executive into the House of Representatives for the first time in a hundred years.

The formal announcements of La Follette's candidacy was read here today to the Conference for Progressive Political Action—which is paving the way for a vigorous campaign—in the mammoth hall where Calvin Coolidge was nominated three weeks ago, and as the Democratic Convention in New York continued deadlocked in its choice of a candidate.

To Fill In All States
"I shall submit my name as an independent Progressive candidate for President, together with the names of July qualified candidates for electors, for filing on the ballots in every state in the union," the announcement read. "My appeal will be addressed to every class of the people and to every section of the country."

La Follette's answer came in response to a petition from the convention. He will be nominated formally tomorrow as an Independent, not as the leader of a third party. He explains his attitude on this point in his lengthy letter which scores the two old parties and carries an outline of his policies.

When the message had been read Herman Willis offered a resolution to nominate him at once by acclamation. This move was opposed by Morris Hillquit, New York Socialist, as premature. Hillquit said the National Committee planned to make nominations tomorrow. This view was sustained.

Son Reads Message

The word from La Follette, read by his son, "Young Bob", came as a climax to the all-day opening session of the progressive convention, which was priming itself for this announcement, and greeted every mention of the Wisconsin Senator's name with roars of applause from all parts of the great auditorium. Young La Follette was frequently interrupted by enthusiastic cheers, sweeping the crowd.

Declaring that "the time has come for concerted action," La Follette said, "Even if both Republicans and Democratic conventions have adopted thoroughgoing progressive platforms the people have learned that neither party could be trusted to keep its promises."

LEGION CELEBRATION SET A NEW HIGH MARK FOR ENTERTAINMENT; PARADE IS MOST POPULAR FEATURE; SPORTS FINE

Railroaders Walk Off With First Prize and Verdict Is Unanimous; It Was a Great Show.

WEATHERM'N KIND

Another Fourth of July is over and marked down upon the pages of the glorious history of this glorious country of ours, and once more has John Shade Post of the American Legion not only demonstrated its ability to foster a really worth while exhibition but again covers itself with glory for the general excellence of the entertainment furnished at their big two day celebration.

The two day program of baseball, racing, and general park entertainment, which reached its climax yesterday afternoon when 20,000 people swarmed into the park, was high-class in every feature and particular and amply repaid all pleasure seekers for their efforts in coming to Clearfield. The high standard of local American Legion entertainments in the past was more than maintained and it is needless to add that every visitor to the town went home more than well pleased with the day spent in Clearfield.

Crowds Not so Large on Third

The crowd on Thursday was not so large as expected, the great majority of people of this region feeling one day was about all they could stand for pleasure and the effervescence of their patriotism. However a fine program was given at the park, consisting of three fine races, a baseball game between the Phillipsburg and Clearfield C. & C. League teams, which was won by Clearfield 3 to 1. The matchless LaFell and the daring and intrepid Marie Collier added their full measure to the entertainment, while Geo. Bobyn's big midway also provided entertainment for the visitors.

Real Big Day on 4th

The Fourth was one real big day and that, too, despite the rain which trickled gently down throughout the entire morning and no doubt kept hundreds of people at home. Hostilities opened with the big industrial parade, and it sure was one big parade.

Clearfield business concerns, business men and citizens generally, have every reason to be proud of that parade. We doubt if there are many other towns in this region where its like could be presented. No community stands more squarely or more solidly behind its American Legion Post than does old Clearfield and this fact was exemplified, once more in the spirit in which our people entered their industrial parade. The parade itself beggars description and was a revelation to the stranger within our gates. Hundreds of people drove into Clearfield from all over Central Pennsylvania just to see that parade and none were disappointed. It certainly was worth seeing. The standard of the floats was so high that each and every one deserve favorable comment and as that would require two newspapers the size of ours, we will limit our comment to the report of the Parade Judges, which meets with our hearty approval in every particular and detail. That report follows:

Report American Legion

Gentlemen:—

Your float judges beg to report as follows:

For the club and fraternal organization class we are unanimous in awarding the cup to the Brotherhood Railway Trainmen, Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, who had not only an excellent float but men in line. Honorable mention in this class was awarded in the order named as follows: Clearfield Commercial Club, the Playgrounds, especially the West Side playground; the B. F. O. The American Legion Auxiliary.

HAD VERY CLOSE CALL

The only near-accident reported to us during yesterday's big time occurred on Market street in front of Cook's store when a nurse girl carrying one of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Broth's twin babies, was struck and knocked down by an automobile driven by Frank Stewart. The car was very nearly stopped when it struck the girl and while both nurse and child fell to the street, fortunately both escaped injury.

SWAT THE FLY! SWAT THE FLY! SWAT THE FLY!

On Monday morning the local Board of Health will start a fly elimination campaign under the direction of Health Officer Gaultin. It will be a campaign not only for the elimination of the fly we have with us but an effort to stop the generations yet unborn.

Starting bright and early Monday morning the Boy Scouts will distribute fly swatters and attached thereto, will be a folder issued by the State Department of Health. This folder is in cartoon style bearing an impressive lesson on the reasons why the fly should be done away with.

It is the intention of Health Officer Gaultin to carry this campaign through to a successful conclusion and he wishes every householder in this city to co-operate.

The place to start eliminating the fly is to destroy the breeding places and the rubbish and waste matter which gives them food. You, Mr. Home Owner, can do this by cleaning up your premises and doing away with the breeding places.

The stores in the city where you would naturally look for something to aid you in the fight for the elimination of the fly, are co-operating with the Board of Health and offering many things which will be of material aid in the campaign.

So SWAT THE FLY, destroy his breeding places, make Clearfield a flyless town.

NEW STAR SHINES IN COLOR CONTEST; BOYD AGAIN WINS

To Arnold Leipold goes the first prize in the Coloring Contest for this week. And the judges were unanimous in their opinion that Arnold's page was and is the best page which has ever been submitted to them among the hundreds of pages they have gone over. There is a finish to this page which would do great credit to an artist many years Arnold's senior.

Miriam Boyd secured second prize in close competition with a new contestant, Marr Adam. Of course, Marr was given third prize although both eliminated from second place. Marr Louise Gingery was awarded fourth prize.

THE CAT DIDN'T COME BACK

There was woe in the freak animal tent at the carnival at the park this morning over the disappearance of the six-footed cat. The cat disappeared some time last evening but failed to come back thus far today.

The cats' keeper said a couple of strange female tribes were seen about the tent entrance several times during the week and it is thought that "Tommy" was induced by some of those Mill Road "Mariars" to go out to see the town during last night and they think he might have taken a catnip or two too many and fell by the wayside.

If you see a six footed "Tommy" cat in your back yard, notify the Carnival attaché or Way Powell, the "cat policeman."

FIRST BALLOT IS BARREN OF RESULT

Madison Square Garden, New York, July 5.—Short in temper and funds and with another expensive week-end in New York starting them in the face unless an agreement is reached today, delegates to the Democratic National Convention trod their well worn path to the Garden again this morning and resumed their endurance contest over the selection of a presidential nominee.

If the temper of the delegates has been frayed before, it was positively jagged today—the sixth of this history-making deadlock over a matter that usually is decided in less than half that time.

"We want to go home," was the universal wail.

The hungry doughboys in the A. E. F. never waited it with more fervor. But the strong prejudices and unyielding bitterness that have combined to tie up this gathering day after day seemingly were just as pronounced as ever. And when the first heavy eyed delegates straggled into the Garden at 10:30 o'clock the outlook appeared gloomy for a decision today. Everything looked gloomy, the weather included. The skies were overcast and sullen and threatening to spit rain any minute.

The hard played sad and melancholy music while the delegates drifted in and wearily found their seats.

Notwithstanding less than half of them were in their seats at 10:45, Chairman Walsh called the convention to order.

The 71st ballot brought comparatively little change in the standing of the candidates.

McAdoo again ran his total above the 100 mark as he did last night but failed to increase the figures. Smith stayed where he was and there was no difference in the favorite son showings.

The apathy of the delegates was shown by the fact that no applause greeted the hectic announcements of "so many for Smith" and "so many for McAdoo". The votes were old songs. They had been sung before—seventy times. The delegates read newspapers and otherwise amused themselves.

While the 71st ballot was in progress, Tom Taggart, George Brennan, Wm. Jennings Bryan and other leaders of lesser note were holding a quiet meeting in a little room under the stage. They have talked several times during the last 24 hours—always fruitlessly.

The first ballot taken, the 71st, was as follows:

McAdoo 528½.
Smith 334½.
Davis 67.
Underwood 37½.
Glass 25.
Baker 56.
Ritchie 16½.
Robinson 21.
Walsh of Montana 1.
Owen 2.
Gov. Bryan 2.
Saulsbury 6.

The 72nd ballot was similarly unproductive of any appreciable change. The lines held firm and the totals for each candidate varied but little.

Ohio Breaks.

The 74th ballot was marked by the breaking up of Ohio's block of 48 votes which had gone solidly for Cox or Newton D. Baker since the balloting started.

Ohio split her vote among nine candidates and gave McAdoo not one vote. Gov. Smith got 20½ of the 48.

This ballot also marked the end of agreement between Michigan leaders and the McAdoo forces under which Michigan had given Smith a majority again.

The Ohio and Michigan switches brought Gov. Smith up to the highest total he has yet attained, 364, barely short of third of the convention.

Smith Gains Veto Power.

While the 76th ballot, which showed comparatively little change, was in progress, there was a meeting of Smith leaders, McAdoo leaders and the managers of favorite sons under the speaker's platform, at which various subjects were discussed for breaking the deadlock.

One of the principal questions discussed was that of taking an adjournment shortly until next Monday morning to give everybody time to cool off and get together.

Governor Smith on the 76th ballot climbed above the "veto mark" of 367 votes and for the first time during the convention polled more than a third of the convention. He had been hovering around it for several ballots.

After the 78th ballot Tom Taggart of Indiana was recognized and moved that Cordell Hull, Chairman of the National Committee and Senator Thomas J. Walsh, permanent Chairman, be appointed a committee of two to confer with the representatives of all the candidates to see if an agreement cannot be reached that will hasten the conclusion of this convention.

The Taggart resolution passed overwhelmingly.

Caldwell, New Millport; James Caldwell an old Clearfield Countian, but for some years past residing with his daughter in Tyrone, who will be 89 on Monday July 7th.

Mrs. Wiza, Mrs. McNeel and Mrs. Moore are sisters of Mrs. Fink and Mark A. Caldwell a brother.

James Caldwell is an uncle of the above named, a great uncle of Mrs. Armsey, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Haines and Reuben McNeel and a great great uncle of Dorothy and Thomas Armsey and Betty Jane and Wava Ilene Foster.

They all enjoyed the very fine parade and the men folks the good ball game, races and other entertainments at the Park in the afternoon.

Two Ways To Build a Car

The Hupmobile Quality-Proof exhibit shows you two ways of building a motor car.

You don't have to be an expert on fine motor car practice to understand Hupmobile Quality-Proof. Every part is labeled. Its material is given in plain English.

The lesser practice is also told. You can see it all for yourself. Here is the kind of proof you are justified in demanding from any car.

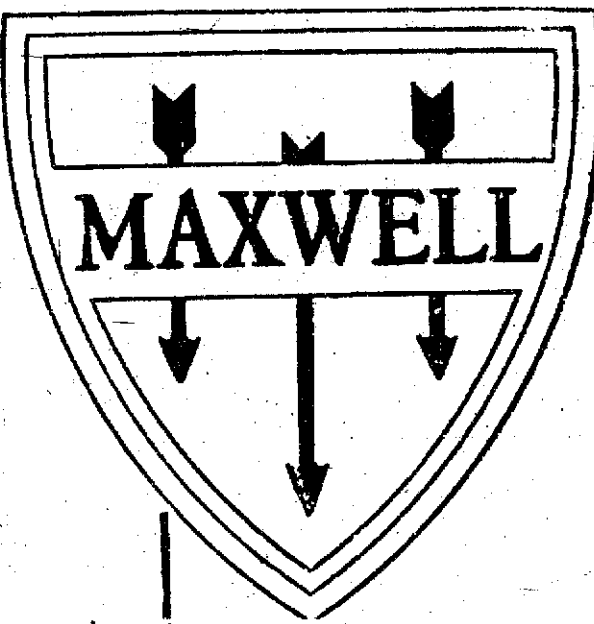

Hupmobile Quality-Proof shows you not only fine material. It shows you fine engineering design and fine manufacturing—as fine as can be done by trained mechanics and modern precision machinery.

Hupmobile owners could tell you how much these things mean in satisfaction—in saving them money and time—in making their Hupmobile pay as no other car ever before paid them.

Come in soon—and learn how a motor car must be built to give you the satisfaction every motorist desires.

PENN MOTOR SALES COMPANY
North Third Street. Clearfield, Pa.

Walter P. Chrysler says Maxwell Now Sets a New Pace.

The good Maxwell is displaying the possibilities of the four-cylinder car, in the very things people want in motor cars, in a way they have never been demonstrated before.

With the active participation of the Chrysler Six engineering staff, the process of betterment begun three years ago was tremendously accelerated.

Knowing that the latest Maxwell developments approach the revolutionary in both practice and results, I have every justification in the world for calling Maxwell a most wonderful four-cylinder car.

The difference in the way the Maxwell rides and drives and steers will impress you instantly.

You will be expecting the vibration you've always felt behind a four-cylinder engine.

But you will be delightfully disappointed—and surprised. For we have taken that vibration away from Maxwell. It's gone.

The device which accomplishes this result in Maxwell—for the first time, we believe, in a four-cylinder car—is nothing more than a floating platform spring under the front end of the motor—but it is exclusive to Maxwell.

You can safely count on 22 miles to the gallon or better, and 18,000 miles per set of tires. Those figures are not ours, but the average of Maxwell owner reports.

Main bearings rarely if ever replaced; a longer-lived, smoother-running car because vibration is practically eliminated.

That's the way we are building the good Maxwell today—with a far greater proportion of costly alloy steels than is usual at its price.

Those are the results which I want to drive home to every man and woman who is in the market for a car.

You probably have your own ideas about a motor car and what you want it to do.

The most I ask is that you compare Maxwell riding and driving and performance with those ideas of yours, and then decide for yourself whether any other four you know of can match up to Maxwell.

RALSTON NOW RUNNING A STRONG THIRD;
TODAY'S BALLOTING WEARS DOWN BOTH
M'ADOO AND SMITH AS WAS PREDICTED

Convention Adjourns
Until 8:30 P. M. After
Ralston Fails To Show
Any Great Strength.

WAS DRAB SESSION

Madison Square Garden, July 3, (INS).—Deadlocked as tightly at the end of the 54 ballots late this afternoon as it was last Monday, the Democratic convention adjourned at 4:25 this afternoon until 8:30 tonight with McAdoo hovering around 425, Smith 520 and Senator Samuel M. Ralston, of Indiana, being given a trial heat to see how much speed he can develop.

Ralston polled 92 votes on the 54th ballot, while Indiana giving him 30, with Missouri and Mississippi and scattering votes making up the balance.

The Hoosier Senator was the first of the "trial horses" trotted out. He failed to develop as much strength as was expected by his handlers, although it was understood that Tom Taggart, his manager, had more votes in sight for his candidate than he revealed before the adjournment.

As a result of today's developments there was talk among the McAdoo leaders at adjournment of trying to bring in a resolution providing that at the 60th ballot the lowest man on each succeeding ballot be dropped until only three are left and this trio to fight it out.

The proposition was advanced by the McAdoo managers but they found opposition to it everywhere. The Smith people were contemptuous and the supporters of every dark horse in the Democratic stable were as cold as ice to it.

Madison Square Garden, New York July 3.—Deadlocked through 51 ballots with Wm. G. McAdoo's lead slowly being reduced, the Democratic National convention began experimenting this afternoon in an effort to determine the strength of the various dark horses whose insistence in hanging in the race has provided the Smith-McAdoo impasse.

Shortly after two o'clock ex-Senator Gilbert Hitchcock of Nebraska, began circulating a resolution which would provide that starting with the 60th ballot, the low man on each ballot be dropped for consideration until only three would be left, and then these three be permitted to fight it out.

Hitchcock was seeking to get sufficient support for the resolution before actually introducing it. There appeared to be considerable division of opinion as to its advisability.

Missouri swung into the Ralston column on the 52nd ballot, putting the Hoosier Senator third in the running.

52ND BALLOT

On the 53rd ballot North Carolina passed and the delegation left the floor to caucus.

It had not returned when roll called and Chairman Walsh announced an informal recess of five minutes to give the North Carolinians time to reach a decision as to their future course.

Iowa were busy caucusing during the recess. Smith and McAdoo forces were busy contesting for the delegation under the unit rule while the Ralston men in it were trying to get the delegation solidly for the Hoosier Senator as a compromise between McAdoo and Smith forces.

North Carolina voted one Ralston, four Davis, three Underwood, one pluss, fifteen McAdoo, making the totals

McAdoo, 423½
Smith, 520½

OUCH!

Madison Square Garden, N. Y. July 3, (INS).—Despite jumping back and forth with a pad and pencil trying to find out how the Missouri delegates wanted to vote, Col. Charles M. Hay found time today to send a wise cracking telegram to a volunteer political sage in St. Louis. The adviser telegraphed collect: "Get off McAdoo; be an American," to which Hay sent an answer, paid, which said: "I am not seeking advice on Americanism from men too cheap to pay for a telegram."

Bryan Speech Yesterday
Enabled McAdoo to Go
Over 500 Votes But Is
Cause of Bitterness.

SMITH IS STILL IN IT

The Bryan speech yesterday, while it turned some wavering votes into the McAdoo column and enabled him to climb to the highest point he has yet attained, 505.5 votes, at the same time knit the anti-McAdoo forces more closely together. They have a veto bloc of more than 367 votes which Bryan only made more solid.

McAdoo's total at the close of the fourth ballot was 503.4 or 46.6 less than a majority, and 228.6 less than the two thirds required for the nomination under present rules. The goal of the McAdoo managers last night and today was a majority. Once assured of this, the prospect was that the McAdoo managers would assault the two thirds rule, and seek to have the convention discard it in favor of a new rule allowing a nomination by a majority. A change in the rules, however, seemed more remote even than the chances of McAdoo for obtaining sufficient votes to enable him to make the fight.

Smith Sits Tight
The Smith managers are merely "sitting tight." They are waiting for McAdoo to "shoot his bolt," convinced that he never can attain the two thirds, or even a majority, and once the McAdoo strength hits the rocks in bloc—as they are confident it will—they are going to have their say.

Madison Square Garden, N. Y. July 3.—Plainly out to set a new record in balloting for a Presidential nomination, delegates to the Democratic National Convention re-assembled in Madison Square Garden this morning and resumed their efforts to unite on a man who can command two-thirds of their number.

Forty two ballots were behind them and another weary day ahead, making it virtually certain that the 44 ballots in San Francisco in 1920, and the 49 required for Wilson's nomination at Baltimore in 1912 would be outstripped by this turbulent gathering.

Leaders of the rival factions came to the Garden fresh from a series of conferences, the most significant of which was held in the Waldorf just before 10 a. m. and was participated in by George E. Brennan, of Illinois, Joseph M. Gaffey, of Pennsylvania, Norman E. Mack, of New York, and Tom Taggart, of Indiana.

Declaration of Independence July 4th 1776

When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

Despite McAdoo's imposing climb to 505.4, the Smith managers pointed out today that his net gain over the first ballot of the convention on Monday was only 71.9 votes.

The Smith philosophy found expression in Franklin D. Roosevelt's campaign manager, whose smile never left during the hysterics of the crowd.

"Why get excited?" he grinned. "They can't go anywhere. We have reserves that we could throw in to offset his gains, but why do it at this stage? Let him have his run, and then we will have ours."

Tom Taggart, with Ralston under his wing, sat today just as he has for two weeks here—confident that neither McAdoo nor Smith can over obtain the necessary two thirds, and confident too, that in the end they will be forced to come to the quiet Hoosier Senator as the only compromise possible in this highly complicated situation.

The friends of Joe Robinson have a philosophy similar to Taggart's. They are waiting.

So indeed are the others—John W. Davis, Carter Glass, Gov. Ritchie, of Maryland—waiting and waiting. McAdoo and Smith fly at each other throat; each hopeful that in the end a compromise is inevitable.

cause of much speculation. None of them would discuss the conferees' actions as they broke up and headed for the Garden, but reports were current that after McAdoo had had an opportunity to show something for a few more ballots and Smith has had his run Senator Ralston, of Indiana, Taggart's candidate, is to be the heir apparent, with Smith to be proposed for the vice presidency.

Ralston was one of the "eligibles" named by William Jennings Bryan in his spectacular effort yesterday to swing the convention to one of his own choosing. The Democratic organization in Illinois, Pennsylvania and New York would just as soon see Ralston get it as any one if Smith is eliminated.

Rotarians Hear How Our

Are Being Educated; It
Is A Remarkable Success

Robert B. Reed, son of Rotarian F. B. Reed, gave the local Rotary Club a highly interesting talk on the work of the Evergreen School for the Blind maintained by the U. S. Government at Baltimore for the education and rehabilitation of men blinded in the world war. Mr. Reed is the head of this wonderful institution, which has already produced marvelous results.

He said there were 600 service men totally blinded in the war and then detailed their experiences in fitting these poor unfortunate for life's battles over again. The stories he told of the remarkable response of the patients and the results attained were marvelous and almost beyond belief. Many of these sightless fellows have been educated as poultry raisers and are now employed and making good throughout the country.

LA FOLLETTE PLANS A SIDESHOW OF HIS OWN BEGINNING AT CLEVELAND FRIDAY

By KENNETH CLARK
L. N. S. Staff Correspondent
Cleveland, O., July 2.—A savage denunciation of both the Republican and Democratic parties coupled with a rallying call for Progressives the nation over to unite solidly behind the Independent Presidential candidacy of Senator Robert N. La Follette, Republican, of Wisconsin, will be the keynote of the conference for Progressive political action opening here tomorrow.

This was definitely determined today as the National committee of the Conference put the finishing touches on the arrangements for the convention.

Senator La Follette himself will not be present. He will be represented by his son, Robert J., who acted as "unofficial observer" for his father at the Republican and Democratic conventions. Young La Follette is conferring with his father in Washington today, and is expected here tomorrow.

HATS OFF
Along the street there came a blare of bugles, and ruffle of drums. A flash of color beneath the sky. The FLAG is passing by.

HATS OFF
BLUE and GRAY and WHITE it shines. Over their steel tipped ordered lines.

HATS OFF
The colors before us fly. But more than the Flag is passing by.

HATS OFF
See fights and land fights grim and great. Fought to make and save the state.

HATS OFF
Weary marches and shifting camps. Cheers of victory on spring lips.

HATS OFF
Day of plenty and years of peace. March of a sturdy land's swift increase.

THE BIG CELEBRATION IS NOW UNDER WAY;
A FINE CROWD ATTENDS THE EVENT;
ANOTHER GREAT DAY PROMISED TOMORROW

The big two-day celebration of the American Legion got underway with a rush and a roar this morning and was in full swing as we go to press. A large crowd of people are in town and the Park is comfortably filled, taking in the very fine program prepared for them by the hard-working members of John Shade Post.

The two-day racing program is the best ever given in this region as a 4th of July attraction, while the dare-devil, death-defying special features at the Park are well worth coming miles to see.

Big Parade Tomorrow
The big industrial parade, always a feature of the Legion's Fourth of July celebration, scheduled for tomorrow morning, promises to be a real novelties to be a hummer, about all business and industrial concerns vying with each other in the attempt to make the grandest display and capture the handsome silver cups to be awarded as prizes for the best floats in line.

Something For Everybody.
There will be something going every hour of the day tomorrow and something for everybody in the way of entertainment and amusement. Those who love music may enjoy delightful band concerts by Clearfield's great American Legion Band.

The services of the "sport of kings" will be rendered to watch some of the fastest light harness horses in the State in action on the race track. The baseball enthusiast will see the game between DuBois and Clearfield, the C. P. League leaders, while the thrill element to the feature acts will serve as an incentive to the visitor to seek other stupendous exhilarating and exciting entertainment to be found in a stroll down the midway at Geo. Tobyns big carnival.

Come Along Buddy
The old service dogs admit to the Park and a generous one general look-in at everything going on. Come along, Buddy; and don't forget to wear your "sleeper clothes." They are badges of honor all should be proud to don. There will be a very large delegation of ex-service men in the big parade tomorrow morning.

All roads lead to Clearfield tomorrow. We promise you "some celebration."

Disturbances Mark The
Convening Of Kleroro
At Binghamton, N. Y.

Binghamton, N. Y. July 3 (INS).—Rioting broke out today in connection with the sessions of the State Kleroro of the Ku Klux Klan here.

Disturbances have been feared by police ever since the Klansmen began their descent on this city, when they made an attack on the home of Major E. D. Smith, Kingklegale of the Realm of New York.

Mrs. S. V. Border entertained at home on West Pine St. Nine tables were in play and a delightful afternoon was had. Mrs. Charles Kurtz and Mrs. Ralph Austin were high score holders and both were presented with beautiful gifts.

Mrs. Rachael Dobson and daughter are visiting at the home of Rev. A. W. English in Brookwayville. From there they will go to Pittsburgh, to spend some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hile tarried in town Monday. Mr. Hile and his brother, Elbridge, from Lumber City, were assisting their father, Eli Hile, with business connected with the Hile estate. Accompanying them was their son, Russell, who is assistant to Dr. Furman, head master in the Irving School for boys at Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson. The management admits only one hundred and twenty-five boys. Dr. Russell Hile is one of ten counselors who are taking fifty of these boys camping during the summer months to the White Mountains, New Hampshire.

Mrs. Alex Black and Mrs. R. B. Pearce were called to Mooshannon recently on account of the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Hankin. She is convalescing, however.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright Turner are spending the Fourth in Williamsport. We are glad to note that Mrs. C. N. Gibson is recovering from a serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Eldridge and daughter Phyllis motored here from Juncostown and are visiting at the home of Mrs. Eldridge's sister, Mrs. Stanley Mellett, on Spruce Street.

Mrs. Maurice Jordan, of Juncostown, is spending the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. William Jordan on Turnpike avenue.

Long Island Parade
Long Island, N. Y. (INS).—The 4th of July celebration at the Long Island Legion was the most successful yet. The parade, which was the first to be held in the park, was a grand success. Plaid

The effective use of plaid material on plain is shown in this gown of black, white, and red. It is really nothing more than a standard this year, the coat dress, given a little extra fluff in the way of frills and bands. The front and frilled sleeves are feminine and engaging looking and are much more becoming to many women than the severe finish of tailored panels. The wrap-around skirt caught up at the side cannot be improved upon for comfort and is universally becoming.

We've a new Devil in our town. He's a Devil of great renown. He's a Devil with whom all women try. His name is Blue Devil; he's a Devil for you.

Zah, N. (Delaware). "I was nervous and weak and not regular. I also had pains frequently. I was sickly for seven years and finally had a nervous breakdown following an operation. I am a dressmaker and milliner, and a lady I work for told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am taking it and it has made me well and able to do my work again. I have even helped take care of a sick neighbor recently, so you can see how fit I am. I highly praise your medicine and you may use my letter as you see fit. I hope it will help some other woman." — Mrs. O. L. NORD-LETT, 61-27 Zah, North Dakota.

Over 100,000 women have so far replied to our question. "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?" "85 per cent. of these replies answer 'Yes.'"

This means that 98 out of every 100 women taking this medicine for all kinds of ailments is recommended by 100 for sale by all druggists.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

by Stanley

Owen, 4
McAdoo dropped below 500 on the first ballot of today's session, due largely to the defection of Oklahoma whose 20 votes were transferred to Senator Robinson, of Arkansas.

As the balloting proceeded, the expectation for a "break" became more and more general during the day.

The 44th ballot brought little change in the situation. McAdoo was unable to increase his total and Smith remained stationary.

Both Thomas Taggart, of Indiana, and Gov. Brough, of Arkansas, were busy on the floor during the balloting lining up secondary choice strength for Ralston and Robinson respectively.

The Arkansas manager claimed at 11:15 to have eight states lined up for Robinson when the "break" came; Taggart was said to have considerably more than that for Ralston.

McAdoo dropped a vote on the 45th ballot and Smith made no progress. As it was being taken, Robinson's managers were working earnestly on the floor to set the stage to give the Arkansas Senator "a ride with a few ballots."

As the 46th ballot was starting reports were spread on the floor that Senator Carter Glass of Virginia had released his delegates.

The Glass managers were in conference at the Waldorf and the report could not be confirmed in the Garden, so Virginia continued to cast its 24 votes for the Senator. The lines held tight on the 48th ballot, the totals of none of the candidates varying more than a few stray votes.

Just before the fiftieth ballot started, it was reported that McAdoo managers were considering a proposition to the convention that the lowest man on each ballot be dropped, thus eliminating the outsiders and narrowing the race down to the real contenders.

The Oklahoma vote of 20 for Senator Robinson was challenged on the fiftieth ballot and a poll demanded.

The Trapp-Owen faction in the delegation voted for Robinson and the others for Ralston of Indiana.

Every Ralston vote was greeted with "Yip, Yip" from the Indiana delegation seated behind them.

The Oklahoma poll showed ten for Robinson and nine for Ralston with one absent.

Under the unit rule, the entire twenty was ordered cast for Robinson. Simultaneously with this agitation a spirit was begun by Senator Samuel M. Ralston, of Indiana, under the careful tutelage of Tom Taggart. Iowa, which has voted 24 for McAdoo consistently under the unit rule, waived it by unanimous agreement on this vote and allowed the delegates to vote as they pleased. It disclosed a wide division, all candidates getting part of it.

Kansas likewise was getting restive under the McAdoo yoke. The usual 20 for McAdoo from the Sunflower state was challenged on the 51st, but it was withdrawn for the time being.

less carbon

TO THE driver half the pleasure of motoring is in having a sweet-running, knockless motor. But to-day there's another and more important reason why your motor should be kept fit, flexible, full-powered. That's traffic congestion.

Avoid carbon. It is the pernicious enemy of speed, power, responsiveness and motor dependability. Poor combustion causes carbon.

The Atlantic Gasoline you buy to-day, because of its quick-starting, clean-burning qualities, tends to lessen carbon formation in the cylinders. It is snappier, more easily converted into vapor, more readily ignited by the spark, more complete in combustion. No more efficient, full-powered, finely balanced gasoline has ever been refined for use under modern operating conditions.

IRELAND AT WASHINGTON

Ireland has won its fight for separate representation at Washington, and won it more easily than was expected. Premier MacDonald requested the United States government to receive a minister plenipotentiary from Ireland, on the same terms as ministers from other countries, and Secretary Hughes has announced that the government will be only too pleased to do so.

This development ought to settle the status of Ireland as a self-governing country. Its entire independence is acknowledged in affairs concerning Ireland alone. In affairs affecting Great Britain or the British Empire, naturally the British ambassador will take a hand. Ireland can have no objection to that, as long as she continues a self-governing member of the British "family of nations", on a parity with Canada, South Africa, Australia and the other dominions.

It should have an excellent effect on Anglo-Irish and Irish-American relations, convincing the doubters that Ireland has not been tricked in the treaty establishing the present regime.

JAPANESE GOOD SENSE

When good sense is given a hearing it usually prevails over jingoistic shoutings. When leading Japanese merchants and industrialists plead with their countrymen in behalf of continued friendship, commerce and peace with the United States, they are likely to carry their point.

This country takes more than 40 per cent of all Japan's exports and supplies more than 25 per cent of her imports. That is a healthy commercial relationship which cannot be wisely overturned.

Whatever this country thinks of the Japanese as immigrants, it does admire the Japanese as a nation; it sympathizes with Japanese industry, is interested in Japanese art, and would like to know more about Japanese thought and civilization. There is a fundamental friendliness toward Japan which must be cultivated rather than choked.

The two countries have always been at peace, and there is no reason why they should not always remain so if each nation cultivates its tolerance and good will. A truly civilized ideal calls for friendship and peace first. Commerce follows naturally.

TODAY'S POETRY

Some one has tried to praise—or explain or excuse—modern poetry by saying it is so attuned to modern life that those of the present do not realize its high value.

This may be faint praise for modern poetry. It also seems like faint praise for modern humanity. If poetry which truly represents human thought and human inspiration and human emotion today is so lacking in universal appeal and understanding that we for whom it is written cannot "get" it, who will ever find it noble or beautiful? And what an isolated period the present one must be!

The great poetry which has come down to us through the years makes its appeal to us because it reflects humanity and records human aspirations so truly that it is fresh and living today as it was when first written. If any great poetry is written now it will last far into the future, while the verse that is attuned only to the present day will not outlast that day.

THREE LUSTY CHICKS

By FLORENCE DAVIES

Three lusty chicks for the great and glorious Fourth.

We used to send out for fireworks, and get but the town band and wave the flag and all go down to see the parade.

But parades, somehow, seem to pall a bit lately, and a chance to get off in the country with lunch baskets seems more attractive than the fireman's band tooting its bravest.

We aren't quite so cheery about the great and glorious spirit of Independence, since we've learned from bitter experience that neither people or nations can ever be truly independent of each other, so our Fourth of July speeches are not quite so thoroughly saturated with the fiery joy of shaking off shackles of parent countries and belonging to the land of the brave and the free.

But a better and bigger kind of Americanism remains, and if we are inclined to prefer lunch baskets and the family care, to fireworks and oratory, it's no sign that we are lacking in the spirit of true loyalty to nation—of meals.

Even the fact that the Presidential candidate market doesn't seem to be flooded with first citizens who are just cut out to be president doesn't entirely blind our eyes to the fact that America is a pretty good place to be.

And there is more than one way of expressing loyalty. One way is with bands and parades and pink lemonade and cheap oratory, and the other way is by definite constructive service.

The club women of the land had a pretty same idea when they came to the conclusion that welcoming our new citizens at specially arranged meetings was a better kind of patriotism than sending up hundreds of dollars worth of fireworks, which would be longest remembered by the hundred or more unfortunate little boys and girls who lost fingers and eyes thereby.

PROCLAMATION

We have in the past three years avoided any injury to guests of the American Legion celebration because of our traffic system. This year we hope to avoid any injury and therefore respectfully request that you give us your co-operation on July 5th and 6th.

One way traffic is established in going to and from the park. Signs will mark the streets on which traffic is permitted.

To the Park

Down Second street, across Second street Bridge, up Nicholas street to Turnpike, out Turnpike avenue to McBride street, down McBride street to automobile entrance to park.

To Town

Leaving park by exit at gate on Old Mill Road, turn to left on Old Mill Road to Turnpike avenue, turn to left down Turnpike ave., past hospital to B. R. & P. Station and across Market street Bridge to Court House.

Traffic policemen will be stationed to direct traffic at points of intersection and along Turnpike Avenue. No parking will be permitted on Turnpike Avenue between West Pine street and Old Mill Road, or McBride street.

We are going to make every effort to move traffic as speedily as possible, and earnestly request that you abide by the traffic rules and pay strict attention to traffic guides so we may again entertain our guests without injury to any.

Pedestrians will enter the park by the Main Gate.

country. One case mentioned was that of a young sailor who went ashore on the Italian front. While sightseeing over the battle field this man picked up what looked to be a tube of tooth paste, but which proved to be a bomb, the explosion of which blew off both his hands and blinded both his eyes. This man was taken in charge at the Evergreen School, recently passed his second year examinations with honors at a Maryland law school, and expects to become a full fledged lawyer, following his graduation next year.

Reports were also made by Delegate Dean Bloom of the recent Toronto convention. Howard Stewart, Dr. Ward O. Wilson, Albert Stewart, Phil Barrow and John Forsyth also added some details to Dean's story. It was unanimously decided after these recitals to extend the Club's thanks to DuBois, Niagara Falls, Buffalo and Toronto Rotary Clubs for the splendid manner in which they received and treated the local delegation to Toronto.

President Smith complimented his committee for their promptness and announced the Boys Work Committee would have the floor for next week's meeting. Chairman Leavy of the Parade Committee announced that his committee had every arrangement made for the handling of the children at the Children's Home on the Fourth. Leavy now poses as an authority on children.

Kansas Farmers Organize 400-Bushel Potato Club

According to the Kansas Industrialist, the Kansas State Agricultural college is sponsoring an organization, membership in which is restricted to those farmers who shall grow 400 bushels or more of potatoes on an acre of land. This is believed to be the second "Four Hundred Bushel Potato" club organized in this country, the other being the club that already has a year or more of successful experience behind it in Pennsylvania.

The ever-growing list of state "Corn," "Wheat" and "Potato" clubs is tangible evidence of the rapidly widening conviction in the country for stimulating interest in higher rates of yield as being perhaps the most practicable means of increasing production cost and insuring their profit to the grower.

FOWLER-CRAGO
Tuesday evening, July 1st, 1924—Mr. Gordon Fowler and Miss Elizabeth M. Crago, both of Houtzdale, were united in the bonds of Holy matrimony in the West Side Methodist parsonage by the pastor—William L. Armstrong. After a brief honeymoon trip to Barnesboro, Pa., they will be at home to their friends in Houtzdale, where congratulations and best wishes may be bountifully bestowed.

THOMPSON-NICHOLSON
The marriage ceremony of Clair S. Thompson and Miss Flora Eva Nicholson, both of Grampian, Pa., was solemnized in the West Side Methodist parsonage on Wednesday evening, July 2nd, 1924, by the pastor, William L. Armstrong. The beautiful ring ceremony of the church was used. They were attended by Mrs. Marian Nicholson Thompson, as bridesmaid, a sister of the bride and Carl F. Thompson, as best man, brother of the groom. They will be at home in Grampian, Pa. to their many friends, who desire to extend congratulations and best wishes.

The chief trouble with increased earnings is that they nearly always bring increased yearnings.

Bad Luck and the Devil Pursued Him

"I don't think any one has had more bad luck and sickness than I have. In 1906 I had two ribs broken, an arm and collar bone broken in a railroad accident. Then I had pneumonia. After recovering I crossed a pasture when a bull chased me, tossed me over the fence and broke my right leg. In 1910 I had typhoid fever; since then severe stomach and liver trouble, which no medicine or doctor touched until two years ago I got a bottle of May's Wonderful Remedy, which proved the first ray of light in sixteen years." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinally and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

CAL MEETS CHARLIE

This is the first picture to be secured of President Coolidge with his running mate, Charles Dawes. It was taken in Washington where Dawes and Coolidge have been discussing Republican campaign matters.

Follette Plans A Sideshow Of His Own

arrow with a draft of the platform which the national Wisconsin Senator wants this convention to adopt. That platform will recall both old line parties for failure "to eliminate progress and reforms" and will call for sweeping reforms in governmental operation. Having had full opportunity to study both platforms adopted in Cleveland and New York, La Follette will go each one better in announcing a Progressive doctrinal platform, pledging particularly to farm and laborers.

Chief plan in the La Follette platform it was learned today are:

- 1.—Governmental ownership of railroads.
- 2.—Farm relief through immediate establishment of a federal corporation to buy and sell agricultural products.
- 3.—Sweeping reduction of tariff rates.
- 4.—Constitutional amendment, giving Congress power by a two-thirds vote to override decisions of the supreme court.
- 5.—Direct primary for election of President and Vice President.
- 6.—Lowering of taxes on the smaller incomes and imposing higher rates in the upper brackets, possibly including an excess profits tax.

- 7.—Further disarmament on land and sea.
- 8.—Tightening up of the anti-trust laws.
- 9.—Government development of water power resources, such as muskegon shoals.
- 10.—Crustic corrupt practices act.

As far as those already on the ground are concerned, the question of La Follette heading an independent third ticket is settled. So confident are they that they will run, after receiving the endorsement of this convention, that they are turning most of their attention to the platform and the selection of a Vice presidential nominee. For second choice, Warren S. Stone, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Democrat, of Montana and Representative Huddleston, Democrat, of Alabama, are receiving the most consideration.

The agricultural west is to be the battleground for the ticket that is to be supported here. Convention managers virtually concede the east to President Coolidge but they claim most of the States west of the Mississippi River, with fighting chance in Illinois, Michigan, Ohio and Indiana.

There is some question about the exact form of the support to give La Follette. Word from Washington is that La Follette doesn't want to be nominated, but merely endorsed. Those here who have hopes of forming a third party which in a few years will be strong enough to compete on even terms with the Republican and Democratic parties, desire to nominate La Follette. A statement is expected from La Follette shortly which will make clear his position on this question.

The admitted aim to the convention managers is the formation of a new party with the ultimate hope of building up the party system in the United States. They are not so much interested in a presidential candidacy this year as they are in definitely laying the groundwork for the new party. They feel that both old parties have failed to make any concessions to Progressive voters, and that, therefore, the time is ripe for them to enter the field and capture at least five million votes, hoping that this will throw the election of a president into the House this fall.

Tony Fontana Finds Art In Colored Fire

Hudson, Ohio, July 3.—It all depends on what you call art.

Tony Fontana says he is an artist. The sky at night is his canvas, and he paints gorgeous pictures with colored fire.

Tony makes some of the world's largest pyrotechnic displays in his ramshackle little factory two miles south of here.

"It's an art," says Tony, "but a dangerous art."

A little too much black powder here—a little too much white powder there—may cost a hundred lives.

Not ENOUGH powder—and the slightest mistake in timing an explosion—might cause one of those spectacular aerial bombs to burst in the crowd. A tiny piece of wood, set a bare inch to one side before the sprocket of a big pinwheel, might send the fiery wheel whirling into the spectators' midst.

On Scientific Plane

Besides being dangerous, the manufacture of fireworks is a highly scientific enterprise. Fontana talked about his work.

"Fireworks are judged by the colors they contain," he said. "Heated vapors of certain metals give color to a flame. Sodium, for instance, gives a yellow color; copper gives green or blue."

"What makes fireworks move?"

"The way they are constructed. When a big gun is fired it recoils a few feet. Movable fireworks may be looked upon as very light guns loaded recoil, of course, is much more noticeable with heavy charges, and then the able. It only requires proper contrivances to make a piece by 'through the air like a skyrocket or revolve around a central axis like a Catherine wheel."

"What causes stars to burst in the air?"

"Some fixed stars contain balls or blocks of a special mixture, cemented by a kind of varnish. And these stars shot one by one into the air like pellets from a gun, blaze and burst there with striking effect."

Care In Packing.

"How are cases for fireworks made?"

"They are manufactured from paper or pasteboard and generally are in cylindrical shape. The actual packing and finishing of the fireworks require much care and dexterity." The relation of length and thickness, the size of the opening for the discharge must be estimated, and carried out with mathematical exactness.

Fontana or some of his workmen usually accompany big shipments of his fireworks.

It's Fourth of July all the year round for them.

Mrs. Coolidge Meets Mrs. Dawes

Mrs. Calvin Coolidge and Mrs. Charles G. Dawes, wives of the Republican candidates, are photographed together for the first time.

Curwensville's Own Column

The usual Salvation Army services will not be held at Curwensville on Friday evening.

Liberty Theatre Presents New Hal Roach Serial Which Will Be Fine One

Hal Roach will present his novel new chapter play, "Her Dangerous Path," a Patheserial featuring Edna Murphy, for the first time in this city tomorrow at the Liberty Theatre with "What The Sands Told," the first episode.

This novel serial deals with the problems of a young girl when she picks her own destiny, taking all the chances that come her way for better or for worse. Each chapter is a story in itself, showing what would happen if she should marry the man who asks for her hand. Thrills are abundant, and in the first episode a thrilling automobile chase is promised, ending with the machine plunging over a cliff—the What-Might-Have-Been of the girl's first opportunity to wed.

Federal Grades for Alfalfa Suggested

Department of Agriculture Plans Are Outlined.

Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.

Federal grades for alfalfa are contemplated in investigational work now being done by the United States Department of Agriculture. Preliminary studies in cooperation with state experiment stations the past few months have included the collating of all data obtainable on the relative weight and feeding value of leaves and stems, relative feeding value of different cuttings at various stages of maturity, losses due to leaching, mechanical losses incurred in curing and the results of feeding experiments with stock and swine and stock burned alfalfa. Studies have also been made of the relative importance of alfalfa production in different parts of the United States and of the volume of receipts in various markets.

A number of bales of alfalfa hay have been obtained at various points in the West by the Kansas City office of the hay, feed and seed division of the department, and forwarded to the department's hay laboratory at Washington. Detailed studies of these bales are being made to determine statistical facts regarding color, texture, leafiness and foreign material as grading factors.

During the coming summer representatives of the department will visit the principal alfalfa markets and producing areas to make a thorough survey of existing grades and marketing practices to secure additional samples. Persons interested in the grading of alfalfa, and who have constructive suggestions to offer, are invited to correspond with the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Prized Prints of Old Canada.

The public library of Toronto now possesses the largest and most valuable collection of prints of early life in Canada in existence. The collection includes nearly four thousand engravings, prints and paintings.

Concrete Mixed With Accuracy

Strength of Material Is Determined by Amount of Water Employed.

Few persons realize, perhaps, how great an effect a difference in the proportion of water can have in the mixing of concrete. There are many who do not realize that for each pint of unnecessary water added to a concrete mixture the strength of the finished concrete may be decreased as much as if two pounds of portland cement had been left out.

The best concrete mixture is that which is as stiff as can be mixed conveniently. Even this will not be of the maximum strength which could be obtained, but a mixture of maximum strength would not be practicable for general construction purposes, as it would be too stiff to be worked. But a mixture of the stiffest consistency that can be worked will give 70 to 80 per cent of the maximum strength. The following table shows how too much or too little water detracts from the strength of concrete by wasting the strength of the cement:

Says Piles Heal Up and Disappear Forever

Seldom Fails to Give Absolute Relief From All Pain And Suffering. Guaranteed by Stewart Drug Co. And all Good Druggists.

Many sufferers from Piles or Hemorrhoids have become despondent because they have been led to believe that their case was hopeless and that there was nothing in the world to help them.

To these people we say, "Go to your druggists and get an original box of MOAYA SUPPOSITORIES." One of these inserted into the rectum according to directions will be found to give immediate relief. They reach the source of the trouble and by their soothing, healing, antiseptic action first allay the pain and soreness and then by direct contact with the ulcers and piles cause them to heal up and disappear forever.

It's simply wonderful how speedily they act. Blessed relief often comes in two days. Even in cases that have steadily resisted all known treatments marvelous results have been obtained. MOAYA is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and any sufferer from Piles or Hemorrhoids who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded.

Ouch! Such Pain!

It takes you right in the back! Sometimes in the hip or foot.

It's all due to an over-abundance of that poison, called uric acid. The kidneys are not able to get rid of it. Such conditions you can readily overcome, and prolong life by taking the advice of Dr. Pierce, which is, "Keep the kidneys in good order." Avoid too much meat, alcohol or tea. Drink plenty of pure water, preferably hot water, before meals, and drive the uric acid out of the system by taking Auric. This can be obtained at any drug store, in tablet form. Ask for Dr. Pierce's Auric (kidney and backache remedy).

Lebanon, Pa.—"For four months I was confined to my home quite unable to work. I could not sleep at night because of too frequent kidney action and the secretion burned like scalding water. During that four months I had three different doctors with the hope that one of them would prescribe something that would help me, but it was not until I began to take Dr. Pierce's Auric Tablets that I felt sure of getting better. I was soon back at my work again, and am glad to say that both my kidneys and bladder are in a fine healthy condition."

DEMOCRATS QUIT UNTIL MONDAY MORNING

FIRST BALLOT IS BARREN OF RESULT; OHIO BREAKS ON THE 74TH ROLL CALL

Madison Square Garden, New York, July 5.—(INS)—The Democratic National Convention resorted to arbitration late today after taking 77 ballots in a futile effort to nominate a presidential candidate.

Sen. King of Utah moved an adjournment until 11 o'clock Monday morning. There was vociferous objection, but Walsh finally ruled the adjournment motion had passed.

The conclusion of a hectic day which had witnessed efforts to move the convention to Kansas City and seen three efforts to narrow the field of candidates down by elimination failed to bring the leaders together in the middle of the afternoon and reported out a resolution which provided, in effect, that Cordell Hull, Chairman of the National Committee and Thomas C. Walsh, permanent Chairman of the Convention, be appointed a committee of two to consult the representatives of all candidates and try to "reach an understanding which will hasten the conclusion of this convention."

The resolution follows:
"I move that when this convention adjourns today the Chairman of the Democratic National Committee and the Convention be requested to call a conference of their representatives of the candidates whose names are to be balloted for and who have been formally placed for the purpose of reaching an understanding so as to hasten the conclusion of this Convention."

It was adopted with only a few votes in opposition.

Immediately after this was adopted the convention adjourned until 11:00 Monday morning, the consultations and conferences of Hull and Walsh with the candidates' managers to take place in the meanwhile.

The plan agreed upon—for Walsh and Hull to arbitrate the matter—has the endorsement of all the various candidates, it was said by those in the conferences.

There was considerable kicking about at first but the more non-partisan among the party leaders like Hull and Walsh absolutely insisted that something be done. They pointed out that the convention, over their head at the moment, was then engaged in taking the 77th ballot and that 77 more would probably prove futile under existing conditions.

They insisted that from the standpoint of harmony, mutual advantage and everything else the present situation was intolerable and becoming

DELEGATES REFUSE TO DROP FAVORITE SONS BY ELIMINATING ONE ON EACH VOTE

Madison Square Garden, N. Y., July 5.—Twice within the first two hours of its session today the Democratic National Convention voted down proposals that would have provided for progressive elimination of favorite sons candidates for the President.

Both resolutions were designed to break the deadlock that has continued for six days through 73 ballots and both were made by the McAdoo forces and opposed by the anti-McAdoo forces.

The first of these proposals by Ed. H. Hemans, a delegate from Oklahoma was howled down by a viva voce vote without a roll call. It was too drastic. It would have provided for the elimination of all but two candidates by automatically lopping off the lowest man on each ballot, until only the pair were left—McAdoo and Smith.

The second proposal was by ex-senator Gilbert Hitchcock of Nebraska and was considerably less vigorous. It would have eliminated all but five, the eliminations to have lasted only for one day.

Hitchcock's resolution follows:
"Resolved: It is the sense of this convention that egging with the 76th ballot the candidate receiving the lowest vote should signify to his supporters his withdrawal as a candidate, until only 5 candidates remain before the convention, such withdrawal to remain effective for this day only."

On this resolution there was a roll call and was overwhelmingly defeated by a vote of 496 yeas to 689 nays. It would require a two-thirds vote to pass because a suspension of the rules was involved.

HON. A. A. ADEE DIES

Washington, July 5 (INS)—Second Assistant Secretary of State, A. A. Ade, died here today. He was 82 years old.

Moving Of Convention To Kansas City Is Voted Down Almost Unanimous

Madison Square Garden, New York, July 5.—A sensational move to take the Democratic National Convention away from New York and reconvene it again in Kansas City on July 21st, was overwhelmingly defeated on the floor of Madison Square Garden this afternoon on a roll call vote.

The movement was sponsored by A. H. Ferguson, a delegate from Durant, Okla. He presented a resolution declaring that inasmuch as it was evident this convention was getting nowhere, it should be adjourned after the 7th ballot to assemble again in Kansas City three weeks hence.

Despite vigorous objections raised by the Smith and allied forces in the convention, Chairman Walsh ordered that the Oklahoman's resolution was perfectly in order and should be voted on.

In the end, after a series of hurried consultations, the Smith and McAdoo forces joined in sending the move down to crashing defeat.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis of 11th street entertained at a house party over the 4th.

Out of town guests were Colonel Lewis C. Schucker, wife and son and Mr. Jackson of Mommy, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Rishell and daughter Ruth, of Norfolk, Va.; Lewis L. Rishell of Asheville, N. C.; Prof and Mrs. Geo. W. Hoyt and family, of Springfield, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Rishell, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Noel and children, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Helb, Mrs. Sadie Hetrick, Mrs. G. H. Klinefelter, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hoover and family and Miss Lillian Reichard of York, Pa.

The above accompanied by The Davis family will attend the Rishell Reunion to be held at "The Pines," near DuBois on Saturday, July 5th.

MILL EXPLOSION KILLS FOUR NEAR BRADFORD, PA.

Bradford, Pa., July 5, (INS)—Four men are dead and two are in a critical condition today at a local hospital as the result of injuries received when the plant of the Luminol Corporation, of Pittsburgh, at Lewis Run, was destroyed by a gas explosion late Thursday afternoon.

The dead: Joel Light, 25, Allentown, Pa., expert chemist; Joe Minchie, 25, Lewis Run; Victor Deprater, 24, East Wear; Paul Frank 25, mining engineer, chemist.

The injured: George Wisegarber, 26 of Waynesburg, manager of the plant and son of the president of the Luminol Corporation; John Minchie, 17, Lewis Run, brother of one of the dead men.

The bodies were blown 200 feet from the plant and were almost unrecognizable. The plant was only opened last week and is a complete wreck.

NEW YORK WORLD CALLS ON M'ADOO AND SMITH TO QUIT

LAST NIGHT'S DOPE

By GEORGE R. HOLMES

I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

New York, July 5.—Deadlocked for 70 ballots, and seemingly deadlocked for that many more unless Wm. G. McAdoo and Gov. Al Smith cannot be prevailed upon to eliminate themselves, thus allowing a compromise on a third man, the tired, bewildered delegates to the Democratic National convention went back to Madison Square Garden today and took up the weary grind of answering roll calls.

Overnight developments offered but little promise of the convention making any more headway in its battle of the ballots than it has made in the five previous days. Suggestions that the only solution of this unprecedented situation lies in the withdrawal of both leading candidates began to be heard with increasing frequency as the sixth day got under way.

Governor Smith is ready to pull out, according to his friends if Mr.

Ardmore Policemen Shot, One Seriously Hurt. In Approach To Klan Meet

Ardmore, Pa., July 5. (INS)—Lower Merion township police authorities were prepared to "do battle to the death" with alleged members of the Ku Klux Klan in this vicinity, following the shooting of two officers who were on their way to investigate the burning of a fire cross on the Haverford College grounds.

Captain James I. Donaghy, Police Chief, issued orders to his men that they were to "shoot to kill" any persons appearing in the regalia of the Klan.

A fire alarm was sent in by residents who first saw the fiery cross burning, according to Donaghy's report, and Francis Roy and Albert Miller, policemen, responded. They were walking across a meadow toward the blaze when they saw two figures slinking away in the darkness. They ordered them to halt and instead, they were shot. Roy was seriously injured. A reward of $1,000 has been offered for identification of the men.

FINE HEALTH REPORT

Secretary Gaulin of the Board of Health in his weekly report states that but two cases of communicable disease were reported to the Board of Health during the past week. One was chicken pox and the other scarlet fever.

There are but five cases of contagion in the town under quarantine. They are located as follows—

First Ward—None.
Second Ward—Measles.
3rd Ward—Scarlet fever, 1;
Measles, 2; Chicken Pox, 1.
4th Ward—None.

Klan Plank Bobs Up To Disturb La Follette's Cleveland Convention

Cleveland, July 5 (INS).—The resolutions committee of the conference for Progressive political action engaged in drafting a platform upon which Senator Robert M. La Follette will make his Independent presidential race unexpectedly found itself confronted today with one of the most troublesome of all political questions—the Ku Klux Klan.

Just as the committee members were congratulating themselves that they had avoided the embarrassment of dealing with this problem, a small group of men appeared with a proposed plank denouncing the Klan by name. Failure to incorporate it in the platform, they would result in the taking of the fight directly to the floor of the convention as the Democrats did in New York.

COOLIDGE'S SON IS VERY ILL OF BLOOD POISONING TODAY

Washington, July 5, (INS)—The condition of Calvin Coolidge, Jr., son of the President, who is seriously ill at the White House with blood poisoning was unchanged at 2:50 o'clock this afternoon.

Physicians have been in attendance at his bedside for 24 hours, and both the President and Mrs. Coolidge were in and out of the sick room during the night.

UNION SERVICES FROM JULY 13 TO AUGUST 24

Both because of the spirit of fellowship among the ministers of Clearfield and to strengthen the fraternal and Christian relations among these churches, the pastors have arranged for union meetings on Sunday nights from July 13 to August 24. The places of meeting are Trinity church, July 20, alternating through the period. No announcement of a preacher will be made. The services, however, will be featured. Music will be exceptional in some respects right along. It may not be the selections always; probably the folks that lead. The respective Churches have entered into this plan with fine unanimity and enthusiasm. It promises much for the entire community; it offers much in opportunity and service to the people.

The Baptist, Lutheran, Trinity Methodist, Presbyterian and Protestant Episcopal Churches are joining in this union meeting plan. And their respective members will support from duty, privilege and interest in the major objectives of these meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Imbler motored to Bedford, where they spent the Fourth with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schied and son, of Lock Haven, spent the Fourth with Mrs. and Mrs. Burchfield on old Mill Road.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Bomer and family, of Altoona, visited Mr. and Mrs. Burchfield of old Mill Road, over the week-end.

La Follette Will Run; Trust Me, He Says, Old Parties Unfaithful

Cleveland July 4.—Tossing his hat into the ring as an independent candidate for President Senator Robert M. La Follette, of Wisconsin, has created a tangled political situation which may bear strange fruit, possibly throwing the election of a Chief Executive into the House of Representatives for the first time in a hundred years.

The formal announcements of La Follette's candidacy was read here today to the Conference for Progressive Political Action—which is paving the way for a vigorous campaign—in the mammoth hall where Calvin Coolidge was nominated three weeks ago, and as the Democratic Convention in New York continued deadlocked in its choice of a candidate.

To Fill In All States
"I shall submit my name as an independent Progressive candidate for President, together with the names of July qualified candidates for electors, for filing on the ballots in every state in the union," the announcement read. "My appeal will be addressed to every class of the people and to every section of the country."

La Follette's answer came in response to a petition from the convention. He will be nominated formally tomorrow as an Independent, not as the leader of a third party. He explains his attitude on this point in his lengthy letter which scores the two old parties and carries an outline of his policies.

When the message had been read, Herman Willis offered a resolution to nominate him at once by acclamation. This move was opposed by Morris Hillquit, New York Socialist, as premature. Hillquit said the National Committee planned to make nominations tomorrow. This view was sustained.

Son Reads Message
The word from La Follette, read by his son, "Young Bob", came as a climax to the all-day opening session of the progressive convention, which was priming itself for this announcement, and greeted every mention of the Wisconsin Senator's name with roars of applause from all parts of the great auditorium. Young La Follette was frequently interrupted by enthusiastic cheers, sweeping the crowd.

Declaring that "the time has come for concerted action," La Follette said, "Even if both Republicans and Democratic conventions have adopted thoroughgoing progressive platforms the people have learned that neither party could be trusted to keep its promises."

FIND BOY WHO HAS BEEN LOST 4 DAYS ON FAYETTE HILLS

LEGION CELEBRATION SET A NEW HIGH MARK FOR ENTERTAINMENT; PARADE IS MOST POPULAR FEATURE; SPORTS FINE

Railroaders Walk Off With First Prize and Verdict Is Unanimous; It Was a Great Show.

WEATHERM'N KIND

Another Fourth of July is over and marked down upon the pages of the glorious history of this glorious country of ours, and once more has John Shade Post of the American Legion not only demonstrated its ability to foster a really worth while exhibition but again covers itself with glory for the general excellence of the entertainment furnished at their big two day celebration.

The two day program of baseball, racing, and general park entertainment, which reached its climax yesterday afternoon when 20,000 people swarmed into the park, was high-class in every feature and particular and amply repaid all pleasure seekers for their efforts in coming to Clearfield. The high standard of local American Legion entertainments in the past was more than maintained and it is needless to add that every visitor to the town went home more than well pleased with the day spent in Clearfield.

Crowds Not so Large on Third
The crowd on Thursday was not so large as expected, the great majority of people of this region feeling one day was about all they could stand for pleasure and the effervescence of their patriotism. However a fine program was given at the park, consisting of three fine races, a baseball game between the Philadelphia and Clearfield C. & C. League teams, which was won by Clearfield 3 to 1. The matchless LaPell and the daring and intrepid Marie Collier added their full measure to the entertainment, while Geo. Bobyn's big midway also provided entertainment for the visitors.

Real Big Day on 4th
The Fourth was one real big day and that, too, despite the rain which trickled gently down throughout the entire morning and no doubt kept hundreds of people at home. Hostilities opened with the big industrial parade, and it sure was one big parade.

Clearfield business concerns, business men and citizens generally, have every reason to be proud of that parade. We doubt if there are many other towns in this region where its like could be presented. No community stands more squarely or more solidly behind its American Legion Post than does old Clearfield and this fact was exemplified, once more in the spirit in which our people entered their industrial parade. The parade itself beggars description and was a revelation to the stranger within our gates. Hundreds of people drove into Clearfield from all over Central Pennsylvania just to see that parade and none were disappointed. It certainly was worth seeing. The standard of the floats was so high that each and every one deserve favorable comment and as that would require two newspapers the size of ours, we will limit our comment to the report of the Parade Judges, which meets with our hearty approval in every particular and detail. That report follows:

July 4th
Report American Legion
Parade Committee

Gentlemen:—

Your float judges beg to report as follows:
For the club and fraternal organization class we are unanimous in awarding the cup to the Brotherhood Railway Trainmen, Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, who had not only an excellent float but men in line. Honorable mention in this class was awarded in the order named as follows: Clearfield Commercial Club, the Playgrounds, especially the W. E. Side playground; the B. F. C. The American Legion Auxiliary W.

-HAD VERY CLOSE CALL

The only near-accident reported to us during yesterday's big time occurred on Market street in front of Cook's store when a nurse girl carrying one of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Breth's twin babies, was struck and knocked down by an automobile driven by Frank Stewart. The car was very nearly stopped when it struck the girl and while both nurse and child fell to the street, fortunately both escaped injury.

SWAT THE FLY! SWAT THE FLY! SWAT THE FLY!

On Monday morning the local Board of Health will start a fly elimination campaign under the direction of Health Officer Gaulin. It will be a campaign not only for the elimination of the fly we have with us but an effort to stop the generations yet unborn.

Starting bright and early Monday morning the Boy Scouts will distribute fly swatters and attached thereto, will be a folder issued by the State Department of Health. This folder is in cartoon style bearing an impressive lesson on the reasons why the fly should be done away with.

It is the intention of Health Officer Gaulin to carry this campaign through to a successful conclusion and he wishes every householder in this city to co-operate.

The place to start eliminating the fly is to destroy the breeding places and the rubbish and waste matter which gives them food. You, Mr. Home Owner, can do this by cleaning up your premises and doing away with the breeding places.

The stores in the city where you would naturally look for something to aid you in the fight for the elimination of the fly, are co-operating with the Board of Health and offering many things which will be of material aid in the campaign.

So SWAT THE FLY, destroy his breeding places, make Clearfield a flyless town.

NEW STAR SHINES IN COLOR CONTEST; BOYD AGAIN WINS

To Arnold Leopold goes the first prize in the Coloring Contest for this week. And the judges were unanimous in their opinion that Arnold's page was and is the best page which has ever been submitted to them among the hundreds of pages they have gone over. There is a finish to this page which would do great credit to an artist many years Arnold's senior.

Miriam Boyd secured second prize in close competition with a new contestant, Marr Adam. Of course, Marr was given third prize and being eliminated from second place, Miriam Louie Gingery was awarded fourth prize.

Tickets to the Liberty Theatre awarded to Billy Roemer, Helen Virginia Gearhart, Alvera, Daniel Herrman, Robert, Yvonne Dixie Jane Davis, Ethel, Elmer Stage and Miriam Boyd this city.

Madison Square Garden, New York, July 5.—Short in temper and funds and with another expensive week-end in New York staring them in the face unless an agreement is reached today, delegates to the Democratic National Convention trod their well worn path to the Garden again this morning and resumed their endurance contest over the selection of a presidential nominee.

If the temper of the delegates has been frayed before, it was positively jagged today—the sixth of this history-making deadlock over a matter that usually is decided in less than half that time.

"We want to go home," was the universal wail.

The hungry doughboys in the A. E. F. never waited it with more fervor. But the strong prejudices and unrelenting bitterness that have combined to tie up this gathering day after day seemingly were just as pronounced as ever. And when the first heavy eyed delegates straggled into the Garden at 10:30 o'clock the outlook appeared gloomy for a decision today. Everything looked gloomy, the weather included. The skies were overcast and sullen and threatening to spit rain any minute.

The band played sad and melancholy music while the delegates drifted in and wearily found their seats. Notwithstanding less than half of them were in their seats at 10:45, Chairman Walsh called the convention to order.

The 71st ballot brought comparatively little change in the standing of the candidates.

McAdoo again ran his total above the 500 mark as he did last night but failed to increase the figures. Smith stayed where he was and there was no difference in the favorite son showings.

The apathy of the delegates was again the fact that no applause greeted the hectic announcements of "so many for Smith" and "so many for McAdoo". The votes were old songs. They had been sung before—seventy times. The delegates read newspapers and otherwise amused themselves.

While the 71st ballot was in progress, Tom Taggart, George Brennan, Wm. Jennings Bryan and other leaders of lesser note were holding a quiet meeting in a little room under the stage. They have talked several times during the last 24 hours—always fruitlessly.

The first ballot taken, the 71st, was as follows:

McAdoo 528½.
Smith 334½.
Davis 67.
Underwood 37½.
Glass 25.
Baker 56.
Ritchie 16½.
Robinson 21.
Walsh of Montana 1.
Owen 2.
Gov. Bryan 2.
Saulsbury 6.

The 72nd ballot was similarly unproductive of any appreciable change. The lines held firm and the totals for each candidate varied but little.

Ohio Breaks

The 74th ballot was marked by the breaking up of Ohio's block of 48 votes which had gone solidly for Cox or Newton D. Baker since the balloting started.

Ohio split her vote among nine candidates and gave McAdoo not one vote. Gov. Smith got 20½ of the 48.

This ballot also marked the end of agreement between Michigan leaders and the McAdoo forces under which Michigan had given Smith a majority again.

The Ohio and Michigan switches brought Gov. Smith up to the highest total he has yet attained, 364, barely short of third of the convention.

Smith Gains Veto Power

While the 76th ballot, which showed comparatively little change, was in progress, there was a meeting of the Smith leaders, McAdoo leaders and the managers of favorite sons under the speaker's platform, at which various subjects were discussed for breaking the deadlock.

One of the principal questions discussed was that of taking an adjournment shortly until next Monday morning to give everybody time to cool off and get together.

Governor Smith on the 76th ballot climbed above the "veto mark" of 367 votes and for the first time during the convention polled more than a third of the convention. He had been hovering around it for several ballots.

After the 78th ballot Tom Taggart of Indiana was recognized and moved that Cordell Hull, Chairman of the National Committee and Senator Thomas J. Walsh, permanent Chairman, be appointed a committee of two to confer with the representatives of all the candidates to see if an agreement cannot be reached that will hasten the conclusion of this convention.

The Taggart resolution passed overwhelmingly.

Shark and Ostrich Meat

Shark steak resembles in taste that of tender veal. Ostrich meat is similar to that of turkey.

ENTERTAINED FAMILY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fink entertained a large party of relatives and friends over the Fourth. Those present were:

Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Arnssey daughter Dorothy and son Thomas, of Cleveland, O.; Mrs. S. J. Southey, mother of Dr. Arnssey, Painesville, O.; Mrs. Blanche Foster daughters, Betty Jane and Wava Hene, of Newark, O.; Mrs. Priscilla McNeel, son, Reuben, daughter Wava and Merrill, Haines, Junata, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Moore, Maple Run, Pa.; Mrs. Lizzie A. Wise, Curwensville, Pa.; Mark A. Caldwell, New Millport; James Caldwell an old Clearfield Countian, but for some years past residing with his daughter in Tyrone, who will be 89 on Monday July 7th.

Mrs. Wise, Mrs. McNeel and Mrs. Moore are sisters of Mrs. Fink and Mark A. Caldwell a brother.

James Caldwell is an uncle of the above named, a great uncle of Mrs. Arnssey, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Haines and a great uncle of Dorothy and Thomas Arnssey and Betty Jane and Wava Hene Foster.

They all enjoyed the very fine parade and the men folks the good ball game, races and other entertainments at the Park in the afternoon.

PENNSY-GRAMS

Washington, Pa., July 5, (INS)—Two unidentified negroes held up W. Stymie, of a Ward Baking Co. truck at Belle Vernon near here today and escaped with more than $300 in cash. The robbers escaped in a small automobile the driver reported.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 5, (INS)—John A. Daly, convicted of the murder of his wife last July, left the country prison here today for Rockview Penitentiary where he will be electrocuted on Monday.

A large crowd was at the jail entrance to bid the alleged slayer farewell.

Two Ways To Build a Car

The Hupmobile Quality-Proof exhibit shows you two ways of building a motor car.

You don't have to be an expert on fine motor car practice to understand Hupmobile Quality-Proof. Every part is labeled. Its material is given in plain English.

The lesser practice is also told. You can see it all for yourself. Here is the kind of proof you are justified in demanding from any car.

Hupmobile Quality-Proof shows you not only fine material. It shows you fine engineering design and fine manufacturing—as fine as can be done by trained mechanics and modern precision machinery.

Hupmobile owners could tell you how much these things mean in satisfaction—in saving them money and time—in making their Hupmobile pay as no other car ever before paid them.

Come in soon—and learn how a motor car must be built to give you the satisfaction every motorist desires.

Walter P. Chrysler says Maxwell Now Sets a New Pace.

The good Maxwell is displaying the possibilities of the four-cylinder car, in the very things people want in motor cars, in a way they have never been demonstrated before.

With the active participation of the Chrysler Six engineering staff, the process of betterment begun three years ago was tremendously accelerated.

Knowing that the latest Maxwell developments approach the revolutionary in both practice and results, I have every justification in the world for calling Maxwell a most wonderful four-cylinder car.

The difference in the way the Maxwell rides and drives and steers will impress you instantly.

You will be expecting the vibration you've always felt behind a four-cylinder engine.

But you will be delightfully disappointed—and surprised. For we have taken that vibration away from Maxwell. It's gone.

The device which accomplishes this result in Maxwell—for the first time, we believe, in a four-cylinder car—is nothing more than a floating platform spring under the front end of the motor—but it is exclusive to Maxwell.

You can safely count on 22 miles to the gallon or better, and 18,000 miles per set of tires. Those figures are not ours, but the average of Maxwell owner reports.

Main bearings rarely if ever replaced; a longer-lived, smoother-running car because vibration is practically eliminated.

That's the way we are building the good Maxwell today—with a far greater proportion of costly alloy steels than is usual at its price.

Those are the results which I want to drive home to every man and woman who is in the market for a car.

You probably have your own ideas about a motor car and what you want it to do.

The most I ask is that you compare Maxwell riding and driving and performance with those ideas of yours, and then decide for yourself whether any other four you know of can match up to Maxwell.
